The Text of New Testament B.M. Metzger, B.D. Ehrman, 1968

The Freer Biblical Manuscripts Larry W. Hurtado, 2006 The six biblical manuscripts that reside in the Freer Gallery of Art in Washington DC are historically significant artifacts for tracing the early history of the transmission of the writings that make up the New Testament and the Septuagint. The manuscripts all purchased in Egypt at the beginning of the twentieth century by Charles Freer date to the third through fifth centuries and include codices of the four Gospels Deuteronomy and Joshua the Psalms and the Pauline Epistles as well as a Coptic codex of the Psalms and a papyrus codex of the Minor Prophets which until the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls was the earliest Greek manuscript of the Minor Prophets known. The ten essays in this volume are a notable collection of fresh scholarship with long term value for the study of what is a small but highly valuable treasure trove of biblical manuscripts. The contributors are Malcolm Choat Kent D Clarke Kristin De Troyer Timothy J Finney Dennis Haugh Larry W Hurtado J Bruce Prior Jean Francois Racine James R Royse Ulrich Schmid and Thomas A Wayment. The Book of Memory Mary J. Carruthers, 1992-05-14 The Book of Memory is a magisterial and beautifully illustrated account of the workings and function of memory in medieval society. Memory was the psychological faculty valued above all others in the period stretching from late antiquity through the Renaissance. The prominence given to memory has profound implications for the contemporary understanding of all creative activity and the social role of literature and art. Drawing on a range of fascinating examples from Dante Chaucer and Aquinas to the symbolism of illuminated manuscripts this unusually wide ranging book offers new insights into the medieval world.

The Book of Memory Mary Carruthers, 2008-05-01 Mary Carruthers's classic study of the training and uses of memory for a variety of purposes in European cultures during the Middle Ages has fundamentally changed the way scholars understand medieval culture. This fully revised and updated second edition considers afresh all the material and conclusions of the first. While responding to new directions in research inspired by the original this new edition devotes much more attention to the role of trained memory in composition whether of literature music architecture or manuscript books. The new edition will reignite the debate on memory in medieval studies and like the first will be essential reading for scholars of history music the arts and literature as well as those interested in issues of orality and literacy anthropology in the working and design of memory both neuropsychology and artificial memory and in the disciplines of meditation religion

The Cambridge History of Classical Literature: Volume 1, Greek Literature, Part 4, The Hellenistic Period and the Empire P. E. Easterling, B. M. W. Knox, 1989-05-04 The emphasis of this volume is on Greek literature produced in the period between the foundation of Alexandria late in the fourth century B C and the end of the high empire in the third century A D Here we see a shift away from the city states of the Greek mainland to the new centres of culture and power first Alexandria under the Ptolemies and then imperial Rome Greek literature being traditionally cosmopolitan adapted to these changes with remarkable success and through the efficiency of the Hellenistic educational system Greek literary culture became the essential mark of an educated person in the Graeco Roman world

Tatian's Diatessaron James W. Barker, 2021-10-28 In the late second century Tatian the Assyrian constructed a new Gospel by intricately harmonizing Matthew Mark Luke and John Tatian's work became known as the Diatessaron since it was derived out of the four eventually canonical Gospels Though it circulated widely for centuries the Diatessaron disappeared in antiquity Nevertheless numerous ancient and medieval harmonies survive in various languages Some texts are altogether independent of the Diatessaron while others are definitely related Yet even Tatian's known descendants differ in large and small ways so attempts at reconstruction have proven confounding In this book James W Barker forges a new path in Diatessaron studies Covering the widest array of manuscript evidence to date Tatian's Diatessaron reconstructs the compositional and editorial practices by which Tatian wrote his Gospel By sorting every extant witnesses according to its narrative sequence the macrostructure of Tatian's Gospel becomes clear Despite many shared agreements there remain significant divergences between eastern and western witnesses This book argues that the eastern ones preserve Tatian's order whereas the western texts descend from a fourth century recension of the Diatessaron Victor of Capua and his scribe used the recension to produce the Latin Codex Fuldensis in the sixth century More controversially Barker offers new evidence that late medieval texts such as the Middle Dutch Stuttgart harmony independently preserve traces of the western recension This study uncovers the composition and reception history behind one of early Christianity's most elusive texts

The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric David Edward Aune, 2003-01-01 The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric details the variety of literary and rhetorical forms found in the New Testament and in the literature of the early Christian church This authoritative reference source is a treasury for understanding the methods employed by New Testament and early Christian writers Aune's extensive study will be of immense value to scholars and all those interested in the ways literary and rhetorical forms were used and how they functioned in the early Christian world This unique and encyclopedic study will serve generations of scholars and students by illuminating the ways words shaped the consciousness of those who encountered Christian teachings
