Strands Of Starlight Strands By Gael Baudino:

Spires of Spirit Gael Baudino, 2013-12-10 Six novellas set in the Strand universe offer new windows into Gael Baudino's enthralling world from medieval Adria to modern Denver. Written before, during, and after the composition of Strands of Starlight, the stories in Spires of Spirit are shorter, more personal tales of characters and events that take place around the times of the first and last novels of the series. Charity tells of a carpenter moved by compassion who offers help and acceptance to a spurned village woman. In Lady of Light, a talented woodcarver wrestles with an arrogant priest's demand for a crucifix depicting suffering and sorrow. A Touch of Distant Hands brings the story begun in Charity to its conclusion with an alliance of Elf and witch. Elvenhome Please Come to Denver in the Spring and The Shadow of the Starlight, set in present-day Colorado, tell of those whose newly awakened elven blood forces them to struggle with their identities and the challenges of the modern world. Spires of Spirit weaves its six tales through the world and characters of the Strand Novels, which consist of Strands of Starlight, Maze of Moonlight, Shroud of Shadow, and Strands of Sunlight. Cauldron of Changes Janice C. Crosby, 2023-10-26 The spiritual dimensions in the fantastic works of both firmly established and newer writers, including such talents as Marion Zimmer Bradley, Alice Walker, Patricia Kennealy, Octavia Butler, Toni Morrison, and Ntozake Shange, are examined in this book. The author links their fantastic novels to actual currents within the feminist spirituality movement, addressing the genre's use of goddess worship, psychic phenomena, and reverence for the earth. Special emphasis is given to both the struggle to provide an alternative to men-centered experience and to the need to articulate ways in which feminists can achieve personal and social power. Strands of Starlight A Gael Baudino, 1992-01-23 Women in Science Fiction and Fantasy Robin Anne Reid, 2008-12-30 Works of science fiction and fantasy increasingly explore gender issues, feature women as central characters, and are written by women writers. This book examines women's contributions to science fiction and fantasy across a range of media and genres, such as fiction, nonfiction, film, television, art, comics, graphic novels, and music. The first volume offers survey essays on major topics, such as sexual identities, fandom, women's writing groups, and feminist spirituality; the second provides alphabetically arranged entries on more specific subjects, such as Hindu mythology, Toni Morrison, magical realism, and Margaret Atwood. Entries are written by expert contributors and cite works for further reading, and the set closes with a selected general bibliography. Students and general readers love science fiction and fantasy. And science fiction and fantasy works increasingly explore gender issues, feature women as central characters, and are written by women writers. Older works demonstrate attitudes toward women in times past, while more recent works grapple with contemporary social issues. This book helps students use science fiction and fantasy to understand the contributions of women writers, the representation of women in the media, and the experiences of women in society. Maze of Moonlight Gael Baudino, 1993 Vanessa, a young misfit at the turn of the 14th century, is in danger of persecution during the Inquisition. Baron Christopher of Aurverelle returns to his land to discover that only elven magic can save his people. Until they realize their own elven heritage things for Vanessa and Christopher will only get worse much worse Sequel to Strands of Starlight
