

Flawed Perfection

Honey, let me not fall for balmy days formed by the lure of your deiform face, but for the nights, that cimmerician space deeper than oceans held beneath the grace.
Oh, not for the eyes but the tears they own unheeded and silent, discharged in lone, not for the trophies but for things unknown, those vehement battles behind milestones.

'Cause love's not just the moon but also scars, embracing shortcomings the way we are.
To turn into pillars for things we lack, traversing together life's abstruse track.
So let's put our flaws in a single ball and look deep into it each time we fall, and when you'd find in me your reflection know that we have built our own perfection.
