- c. Atticus' apparent knowledge of their previous activities

Atticus reveals that he knows about their games all along.

- d. "Current Events"

It's a good idea, but Scout thinks it's not practical in Maycomb County since the children have few newspapers and little concept of what a current event was.

2. What is the irony of Miss Gates' lecture on democracy when compared to her comments at the trial?

Miss Gates says that we do not believe in persecuting anyone in America; she states persecution only comes from people who are prejudiced. After the trial Scout had heard Miss Gates say, "It's time somebody taught 'em (Negroes) a lesson." She is a hypocrite.

3. When Scout tries to tell Jem about Miss Gates, why does he react so violently? Explain Atticus' answer to her about this.

Jem was totally disillusioned by the outcome of the trial and is still trying to come to terms with what it showed him about people. He's still too angry and trying to sort things

These three components are seen as supporting one another, building the groundwork for taking stands on issues past and present. At the center is the author's belief that the heart and soul of social studies instruction perhaps all teaching lies in stimulating the production of ideas, looking at knowledge from others' viewpoints, and formulating for oneself a set of goals, values, and beliefs that can be explained and justified in open discussion.
