The background of the page is a detailed painting. On the left, a white lighthouse with a red-tiled lantern room sits on a rocky outcrop. A spiral staircase leads up to the lantern room. In the foreground, a small, light-colored house with a dark roof and a chimney is visible. The house has several windows and a small porch. The background shows a calm body of water, distant hills, and some trees on the shore. The sky is a pale blue with soft clouds.

The Conversations Michael Ondaatje, 2011-04-13 The Conversations is a treasure essential for any lover or student of film and a rare intimate glimpse into the worlds of two accomplished artists who share a great passion for film and storytelling and whose knowledge and love of the crafts of writing and film shine through. It was on the set of the movie adaptation of his Booker Prize winning novel The English Patient that Michael Ondaatje met the master film and sound editor Walter Murch and the two began a remarkable personal conversation about the making of films and books in our time that continued over two years. From those conversations stemmed this enlightened affectionate book a mine of wonderful surprising observations and information about editing writing and literature music and sound the I Ching dreams art and history. The Conversations is filled with stories about how some of the most important movies of the last thirty years were made and about the people who brought them to the screen. It traces the artistic growth of Murch as well as his friends and contemporaries including directors such as Francis Ford Coppola George Lucas Fred Zinneman and Anthony Minghella from the creation of the independent anti Hollywood Zoetrope by a handful of brilliant bearded young men to the recent triumph of Apocalypse Now Redux. Among the films Murch has worked on are American Graffiti The Conversation the remake of A Touch of Evil Julia Apocalypse Now The Godfather all three The Talented Mr Ripley and The English Patient. Walter Murch is a true oddity in Hollywood. A genuine intellectual and renaissance man who appears wise and private at the centre of various temporary storms to do with film making and his whole generation of filmmakers. He knows probably where a lot of the bodies are buried. Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1852 The Golden Rule and Odd-fellows Family Companion ,1848
