History and Hermeneutics Carl E. Braaten, 2016-10-31 This volume interprets the lost decade of theological research and reflection on the relation of Christian faith to history The theological development of this period is depicted as a struggle to go beyond Barth and Bultmann in stressing the centrality of history for revelation and faith Dr Braaten deals with new hermeneutical approaches to achieve a theological synthesis of revelation and history He describes the theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg which calls for a more radical interpretation of revelation along historical lines as a pivotal point in the present situation He goes on to outline current thinking on revelation the historical critical method the historical Jesus resurrection salvation redemption and eschatology

The Philosophy of Japanese Wartime Resistance David Williams, 2014-04-16 The transcripts of the three Kyoto School roundtable discussions of the theme of the standpoint of world history and Japan may now be judged to form the key source text of responsible Pacific War revisionism Published in the pages of Chuo Koron the influential magazine of enlightened elite Japanese opinion during the twelve months after Pearl Harbor these subversive discussions involved four of the finest minds of the second generation of the Kyoto School of philosophy Tainted by controversy and shrouded in conspiratorial mystery these transcripts were never republished in Japan after the war and they have never been translated into English except in selective and often highly biased form David Williams has now produced the first objective balanced and close interpretative reading of these three discussions in their entirety since 1943 This version of the wartime Kyoto School transcripts is neither a translation nor a paraphrase but a fuller rendering in reader friendly English that is convincingly faithful to the spirit of the original texts The result is a masterpiece of interpretation and inter cultural understanding between the Confucian East and the liberal West Seventy years after Tojo came to power these documents of the Japanese resistance to his wartime government and policies exercise a unique claim on students of Japanese history and thought today because of their unrivalled revelatory potential within the vast literature on the Pacific War The Philosophy of Japanese Wartime Resistance may therefore stand as the most trenchant analysis of the political philosophic and legal foundations of the place of the Pacific War in modern Japanese history yet to appear in any language

W.G. Sebald's Hybrid Poetics Lynn L. Wolff, 2014-04-02 This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature's relationship to reality and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography The scholarly and literary works of W G Sebald 1944-2001 serve as striking examples for this discussion for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries Guided by an inherently interdisciplinary framework this book elucidates the interplay of epistemological aesthetic and ethical concerns that define Sebald s criticism and fiction Appropriate to the way in which Sebald s works challenge us to rethink the boundaries between discourses genres disciplines and media this work proceeds in a methodologically non dogmatic way drawing on hermeneutics semiotics narratology and discourse theory In addition to contextualizing Sebald within postwar literature in German the book is the first English language study to consider Sebald s uvre as a whole Of interest for Sebald experts and enthusiasts literary scholars and historians concerned with the problematic of representing the past
