Transforming Agribusiness in Nigeria for Inclusive Recovery, Jobs Creation, and Poverty Reduction Elliot Mghenyi,Cora Dankers,Chidozie Anyiro,James Thurlow,2022-02-08 Nigeria has for decades placed enormous emphasis on diversifying its economy beyond oil and into sectors such as agribusiness and manufacturing Lack of progress on the diversification agenda could be blamed on weak implementation and misalignment of public spending but it also reflects more profound underlying issues For example declarations that any particular sector should drive diversification without offering clarity on specific investment priorities and expected outcomes will not persuade budget holders to allocate development resources The lack of clarity also deprives policy makers and practitioners of the information inspiration and conviction to develop and execute sector plans that could operationalize diversification Transforming Agribusiness in Nigeria for Inclusive Recovery Jobs Creation and Poverty Reduction Policy Reforms and Investment Priorities aims to provide that clarity by illustrating the potential of the agribusiness sector to accelerate inclusive growth create jobs and reduce poverty Building on an early finding that this sector provides the best prospects for inclusive growth and more and better jobs the book identifies the specific agricultural value chains with the highest potential to create jobs reduce poverty and improve nutrition outcomes The findings demonstrate however that the value chains with the most potential to pursue one policy objective are not necessarily as effective for other objectives clearly calling for selectivity of value chains depending on policy objectives The book also estimates the level of growth required to meet specific jobs targets and finds that the growth burden is lower when on farm and off farm segments of agribusiness grow in tandem and higher if either segment stagnates It concludes that a whole of agribusiness approach that emphasizes coordinated investments between on farm and off farm segments is needed to enable the sector to meet its potential in creating jobs and generating inclusive growth Digging Deeper: Inside Africa's Agricultural, Food and Nutrition Dynamics ,2014-11-06 This volume attempts to dig deeper into what is currently happening in Africa s agricultural and rural sector and to convince policymakers and others that it is important to look at the current African rural dynamics in ways that connect metropolitan demands for food with value chain improvements and agro food cluster innovations It is essential to go beyond a development bureaucracy and a state based approach to rural transformation such as the one that often dominates policy debate in African government circles organizations like the African Union and the UN and donor agencies Governance, Natural Resources and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Carl Bruch,Carroll Muffett,Sandra Nichols,2016-04-07 When the guns are silenced those who have survived armed conflict need food water shelter the means to earn a living and the promise of safety and a return to civil order Meeting these needs while sustaining peace requires more than simply having governmental structures in place it requires good governance Natural resources are essential to sustaining people and peace in post conflict countries but governance failures often jeopardize such efforts This book examines the theory practice and often surprising realities of post conflict governance natural resource management and peacebuilding in fifty conflict affected countries and territories It includes thirty nine chapters written by more than seventy researchers diplomats military personnel and practitioners from governmental intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations The book highlights the mutually reinforcing relationship between natural resource management and good governance Natural resource management is crucial to rebuilding governance and the rule of law combating corruption improving transparency and accountability engaging disenfranchised populations and building confidence after conflict At the same time good governance is essential for ensuring that natural resource management can meet immediate needs for post conflict stability and development while simultaneously laying the foundation for a sustainable peace Drawing on analyses of the close relationship between governance and natural resource management the book explores lessons from past conflicts and ongoing reconstruction efforts illustrates how those lessons may be applied to the formulation and implementation of more effective governance initiatives and presents an emerging theoretical and practical framework for policy makers researchers practitioners and students Governance Natural Resources and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management The project has generated six books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in this series address high value resources land water livelihoods and assessing and restoring natural resources Is irrigation fit for purpose? A review of the relationships between scheme size and performance of irrigation systems McCarthy, Nancy,Ringler, Claudia,Agbonlahor, Mure Uhunamure,Pandya, A. B.,Iyob, Biniam,Perez, Nicostrato,2023-04-18 Irrigation is increasingly being called upon to help stabilize and grow food and water security in the face of multiple crises these crises include climate change but also recent global food and energy price crises including the 2007 08 food and energy price crises and the more recent crises triggered by the COVID 19 pandemic and the war on Ukraine While irrigation development used to focus on public large scale surface and reservoir fed systems over the last several decades private small scale investments in groundwater irrigation have grown in importance and are expected to see rapid future growth particularly in connection with solar powered pumping systems But is irrigation fit for purpose to support population growth economic development and multiple food energy and climate crises This paper reviews how fit for purpose irrigation is with a focus on economies of scale of surface and groundwater systems and a particular examination of systems in Sub Saharan Africa where the need for expansion is largest The review finds challenges for both larger surface and smaller groundwater systems in the face of growing demand for irrigated agriculture and dwindling and less reliable water supplies To support resilience of the sector we propose both a holistic design and management improvement agenda for larger surface systems and a series of suggestions to improve sustainability concerns of groundwater systems Costs and Performance of Irrigation Projects

Arlene B. Inocencio, International Water Management Institute, Future Harvest (Program), 2007 High irrigation investment costs together with declining world prices for food and the failures of a number of high profile past irrigation projects are the main reasons for the reluctance of development agencies and governments in sub Saharan Africa to invest more resources in irrigation This study aims to systematically establish whether costs of irrigation projects in sub Saharan Africa are truly high determine the factors which influence costs and performance of irrigation projects and recommend cost reducing and performance enhancing options to make irrigation investments in the region more attractive It analyzes 314 irrigation projects implemented from 1967 to 2003 in 50 countries in Africa Asia and Latin America funded by the World Bank African Development Bank and the International Fund for Agricultural Development World Bank Annual Report World Bank, 1991 Adoption of Technology by Subsistence Farmers in Northern Nigeria Jean-Claude Leon Balcet, 1998 Farm technology adoption in the Funtua Gusau and Gombe agricultural development projects World Bank Annual Report, 1992, 1992 Nigerian Agriculture and the World Bank Gbenga Okeowo, 1998 FAO Document Technique Du Centre D'investissement, 1985 World Bank Research Program World Bank, 2000 The World Bank Monthly Operational Summary World Bank, 1999 Journal of Sustainable Tropical Agricultural Research, 2005-04
