"We invoke the powers of Our Lord Jesus Christ for our lives and for this meeting.

We invoke the powers, forces, miracles and all the light of Our Lord Jesus Christ for our lives, our hearts and for the lives of those we love most.

Thank You for always being by our side, for bringing us together and for allowing us to share our faith as a group.

May You, Our Lord Jesus Christ, accompany us, now and
forevermore,

Amen"

Public Worship John Service, 1885 The Human Church Paul O. Bischoff, 2018-05-29 The church doesn't need to be more spiritual. It needs to become more human. Since God decided becoming human was right, so must the church. Jesus' language was consistently understood by nonreligious people. Elitist in-house church language may never reach the growing number of Americans without a religious background who have given up on God. This book views the church as a unique people group and the reader as an anthropologist. Employing basic ethnographic methods, the reader looks at the church again for the first time without a religious lens. Based upon the premise that all good theology emerges from good anthropology, the book first considers the rituals celebrated around the symbols of a manger, cross, bread, wine, and tomb. Such symbols then become the basis for theological interpretation. Dietrich Bonhoeffer is the reader's conversation partner to help make the theological journey from human community to church, manger to incarnation, cross to redemption, and tomb to resurrection. The church will flourish in the twenty-first century to the degree that it proclaims the Gospel using nonreligious language with a human accent.

Pastoral Prayers to Share Year A David Sparks, So what are we about as pastoral pray-ers? We are about bringing ourselves individually and as a faith community into right relationship with God. What about a Revised Common Lectionary-based book of pastoral prayers for clergy and lay leaders that provides responsive prayers for each Sunday of the year? David gets asked this question often when people recognize him as the author of the three volumes of Prayers to Share. So acknowledging that the pastoral prayer is often overlooked and undervalued and that clergy and lay leaders may be hard pressed for time to compose a fresh pastoral prayer each week, he has put together a unique and comprehensive collection of prayers that can be adapted to present circumstances and used in a variety of settings. The prayers are responsive, written for one or two leaders and a congregational response. They all allow for the inclusion of local and worldwide current events and individual and congregational concerns. David usually uses the weekly Gospel reading as the broad theme for the prayers and divides them into four easily identified sections: world suffering, church ourselves, The how to use section covers preparing to offer pastoral prayer and offers 12 ways to do pastoral prayer such as two-leader congregational response using people and objects to dramatize a theme, using part of a hymn for a lead or a response using silence for effect. Each week offers specific suggestions for two or three prayer formats. Other features include Thematic Index, Scripture Index, Icons in the margin to enable quick identification of prayer sections, and alternate suggestions. Data CD with text files for Year A included with the print version.
