Psychology Serving Humanity: Proceedings of the 30th International Congress of Psychology Saths

Cooper, Kopano Ratele, 2014-06-27 This is the first of two volumes collecting the key proceedings of the 30th International Congress of Psychology the first to be held in Africa in the 123 years of its history The theme of the conference was Psychology Serving Humanity a recognition of psychology's unfulfilled mission in the majority world and a reflection of what that world requires from psychology Mainstream Psychology finds its largest number of exponents and leading personalities in the high income countries of the global West The Other Psychologies referred to by different names are scattered across the rest of the world Some of the names of these other forms of Psychology include indigenous Psychology The main driver of indigenous and other forms of non mainstream Psychology is the endeavour to embed the discipline in the dynamics of local societies Psychology has entered an interesting era however While the dominant philosophy underpinning the discipline remains Western Psychology in the majority world in 2000s may have reached a tipping point It took over a hundred years but the 2004 and 2012 International Congresses of Psychology held in China and South Africa heralded a newfound possibility for the discipline There is an opening of the field to potentially new thought and forms of the practice of Psychology These proceedings are published in the hope that all psychologists especially those located in well resourced institutions in the West confront the divided reality that characterizes Psychology so as to creatively consider the opportunity opened up by the growing field at the peripheries Care was taken when assembling both conference and proceedings to ensure that the entire international psychological community was represented Volume One contains contributions to Majority World Psychology Volume Two contains contributions to Western Psychology Bulletin, 1993-03 Psychology. Sielkunde, 1996 The Handbook of Work Analysis Mark Alan Wilson, Winston Bennett, Jr., Shanan Gwaltney Gibson, George Michael Alliger, 2013-05-13 This new handbook with contributions from experts around the world is the most comprehensive treatise on work design and job analysis practice and research in over 20 years The handbook dedicated to Sidney Gael is the next generation of Gael's successful Job Analysis Handbook for Business Industry and Government published by Wiley in 1988 It consists of four parts Methods Systems Applications and Research Innovations Finally a tightly integrated user friendly handbook of interest to students practitioners and researchers in the field of Industrial Organizational Psychology and Human Resource Management Sample Chapter available Chapter 24 Training Needs Assessment by Eric A Surface is available for download Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich,Dr Anne Brown,2014-06-16 A Resilient Mindset Anita Worrall,2024-05-24 This is Anita Worrall's story and the story of her family The story is set in the middle of twentieth century Eastern Europe at the time of the persecution of the Jewish people followed by the communist regimes Together with her family she escaped from Romania by way of Israel and Cuba to land in Canada She studied at Cornell University where she met her future husband a South African Fulbright scholar He promised her that South Africa would change and in no small way he contributed to that change It is a story that is attached to the millennia long story of the Jewish people It is a story of resilience of taking risks and of courage to move to uncertain futures and strange lands ECKM 2023 24th European Conference on Knowledge Managemen Vol 1 Academic Conferences and Publishing Limited,2023-09-07 Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy Joy E. Akahome,Michael Twum-Darko,Cyril Ogbokor,Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke,T. Sethibe,R. Steyn,Esme Mohammed,Renier Steyn,L.B. Nguenang,Mamorena Lucia Matsoso,Henry N. Ozuru,Julius Akaba,Patience Rambe,Edem Korku Agbobli,Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy,Regis Muchemwa,Andre de la Harpe,Konosoang Mpiti,Ayodeji Afolayan,2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8

September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment

New Horizons For Second-order Cybernetics Alexander Riegler, Karl H Muller, Stuart A Umpleby, 2017-09-15 In almost 60 articles this book reviews the current state of second order cybernetics and investigates which new research methods second order cybernetics can offer to tackle wicked problems in science and in society The contributions explore its application to both scientific fields such as mathematics psychology and consciousness research and non scientific ones such as design theory and theater science The book uses a pluralistic multifaceted approach to discuss these applications Each main article is accompanied by several commentaries and author responses which together allow the reader to discover further perspectives than in the original article alone This procedure shows that second order cybernetics is already on its way to becoming an idea shared by many researchers in a variety of disciplines
