The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown, Herman J. van der Merwe, 2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies

ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Tsekpoe, Lord Elorm Donkor, 2024-09-05 Despite the current impressive numerical growth of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity in Africa there remain some concerns about the extent to which the church is making the desired impact in the public space As the church grows numerically the African continent is ironically plagued with many regrettable stories of corruption bad governance sexual abuse gender discrimination and perversion environmental degradation robbery economic crisis leading to poverty and hunger wars and other social vices This paradoxical increase in vices alongside the demographic growth of the Christian population on the continent has caused many to question the social impact of African Christianity. Re-Visioning African Pentecostal Charismatic Ecclesiology in the Public Sphere is a response to these observations. The contributors to this volume who are made up of seasoned academics, theological educators and missiologists and mission practitioners have engaged the subject from multidisciplinary perspectives highlighting significant contributions of African Pentecostalism while pointing out critical areas for urgent attention. The volume is intended to stimulate conversations around the church's mandate of influencing the public sphere as an agent of social transformation.

Empowering Novice Academics for Student Success Dr Johann Hugo, 2021-04-26 This book is essential for academics that enter the field of higher education and training as it focuses on preparing teachers and trainers to respond appropriately to student success challenges. Student success is a burning issue both globally and locally. While student achievement is determined by a combination of factors, teachers and their teaching practices do matter. Higher education teachers are expected to fulfil different roles at different times such as planning for curriculum implementation, mentorship and coaching, facilitating learning, resource development and student assessment. Against this background, the primary purpose of Empowering novice academics for student success is building the capacity of novice teachers and trainers to play an influential role in increasing student success throughout.

Academic Integrity Meets Artificial Intelligence Ruth Baker-Gardner, 2025-11-13 Academic Integrity Meets Artificial Intelligence examines academic integrity practices in higher education institutions. HEIs in the Caribbean assessing the current and potential impact of generative artificial intelligence tools on academic integrity and how HEIs globally have been responding.

Infertility in a Crowded Country Holly Donahue Singh, 2022-12-06 In Lucknow, the capital of India's most populous state, the stigmas and colonial legacies surrounding sexual propriety and population growth affect how Muslim women often in poverty cope with infertility. In Infertility in a Crowded Country, Holly Donahue Singh draws on interviews, observation and autoethnographic perspectives in local communities and Lucknow's infertility clinics to examine access to technology and treatments and to explore how pop culture shapes the reproductive paths of women and their supporters through clinical spaces, health camps, religious sites and adoption agencies. Donahue Singh finds that women are willing to transgress social and religious boundaries to seek healing. By focusing on interpersonal connections, Infertility in a Crowded Country provides a fascinating starting point for discussions of family, kinship and gender, the global politics of reproduction and reproductive technologies and ideologies and social practices around creating families.
