

Unit Activity

Unit: Reading and Comprehending Fiction

This activity will help you meet these educational goals:

You will write a well-planned and clear critical essay about a work of fiction that includes effective transitions and strong evidence to support your claims. In planning the essay, you will gather and analyze sources to use in the essay, including evidence directly from the work of fiction. Finally, you will draft and revise the essay by using a checklist and following an established style guide.

Introduction

In the task, you will write a critical essay using information from credible primary and secondary sources, and you will properly cite your sources. The activity brings together general essay writing techniques with a focus on using literary analysis to write about literature.

Directions and Analysis

Task 1: Writing a Critical Essay on Leo Tolstoy's The Death of Ivan Ilyich

In this task, you will write a critical essay on Tolstoy's The Death of Ivan Ilyich (approximately 900 words). You may have previously drafted a similar, shorter essay in a lesson in this unit. If you have, please expand on the shorter essay that you wrote for that lesson by adding critical research and widening its scope. If you did not write a shorter essay, you can start writing from scratch by following the steps included in this task.

Make sure you consult at least one source from your school or local library and at least two credible Internet sources, and incorporate the information that you gather into your paper. Use information from respected journals or academic or government institutions when looking at online sources to ensure that you're referring to credible sources. Verify if the author that you are quoting is an expert on your chosen subject. Ensure that the author has published many articles in reputed journals and other sources. Also, ensure that the article you want to reference is well cited and has a bibliography at the end. For more advice, read about finding and evaluating credible resources and citations.

Also remember to include relevant information from the primary source—Leo Tolstoy's The Death of Ivan Ilyich—in your essay as well. You can access the novella by opening up any of the lessons about the The Death of Ivan Ilyich.

Include at least one counterargument in your paper. A counterargument or counterclaim captures an idea that those with a differing viewpoint might raise against your claims in the essay. By anticipating such counterclaims and offering a rebuttal, you make your own argument stronger. Read more about organizing your essay and including counterarguments.
