| 1. Would it make any sense to build nuclear weapons and test?      | That U.S. suspend the international C. Energy Treaty.                                                      | Not really.                                                                                                                                                               |
| 2. Would anyone benefit if the U.S. to build the weapons and test? | They would certainly produce a benefit that was worth the cost. The U.S. would be able to deliver the aid. | They were worried about the U.S. being weakened by the U.S. knowledge that the U.S. could launch a nuclear attack, planned action was needed to prevent a nuclear attack. |
| 3. Would anyone disagree with this?                                | Not really.                                                                                                | Some people in the U.S. were not happy with the idea.                                                                                                                     |
| 4. Would the U.S. be able to build the weapons and test?           | Yes, the government could do it. The U.S. would be able to build the weapons and test.                     | Yes, the government could do it. The U.S. would be able to build the weapons and test.                                                                                    |

2. What do you think the U.S. would do if the Soviets did not agree to the agreement?
