The Magic Of Engagement The First Step In Education:

The Magic of Engagement Leah Kyaio,2015-01-09 This book goes beyond the theory and idea of what exactly engagement is which alone might surprise you and walks you through over 20 specific tools and their variations with discussion on why and how each of them are successful so you can build and develop your own tailored classroom activities Bring life to your learners and fun to the learning

The Magic of Engagement Leah Kyaio,2023-10-04 The first edition of Magic was well received Research information and the resulting application has improved what we know and how we apply so much more than even 6 years ago As such this book continues to expand beyond simple theory and provides concrete information tools and application of the idea of engagement in all its various stages We have added and amended not just the content but also the specific tools and their variations the second half of the book to provide teachers instructors facilitators and trainers with an even bigger toolbox Once again we are bringing life to the learning so that the stick is increased That s why we teach so people learn and apply what we have taught

Schools of Magic Megan H. Suttie,2023-02-15 What happens when the classroom and the fantastic meet When lessons cover spells and potions alongside science and language arts Through fantastic school stories fiction involving the intersection of fantasy and school the cycle of lessons homework exams and graduation becomes new again inviting us to consider what schools are teaching who can be a student and how knowledge is developed Introducing a new framework for analyzing texts in the fantastic school story subgenre this book examines texts including the Harry Potter series Lev Grossman s Magicians trilogy Terry Pratchett s Discworld and Patrick Rothfuss s Kingkiller Chronicle along with works by Jane Yolen Nnedi Okorafor and Tracy Deonn This holistic framework combines the methods of fantasy literature scholarship the focus of school story analyses and an awareness of hidden lessons taught alongside official subjects allowing for nuanced examinations of topics such as standardized testing apprenticeships and access to education

Higher Education and Civic Engagement L. McIlrath,A. Lyons,2012-06-18 Provides an original and challenging contribution to contemporary debates on the civic purpose of higher education exploring its manifestations through practices of teaching and research Offers critical perspectives on the role of higher education institutions in terms of realizing civic missions especially in current global market conditions

Place-Based Community Engagement in Higher Education Erica K. Yamamura,Kent Koth,2023-07-03 While an increasing number of universities have or are committed to engaging their campuses in their surrounding communities many recognize they lack the strategic focus and resources to maximize and sustain their impact on those communities Place based community engagement provides a powerful way to creatively connect campus and community to foster positive social transformation In developing community engagement strategies most universities and community organizations face significant challenges in deciding who to partner with and why Frequently this leads universities and community organizations to say yes to too many opportunities which significantly limit their ability to pursue long term impact Focusing on an established geographic area can make it much easier to decide where to deploy resources and which partnerships to prioritize and thus increase their ability to form strong and sustainable partnerships that are of greater value to all stakeholders This book presents the emerging model of place based community engagement as a powerful process for attaining more positive and enduring results in their local communities as well as stimulating wider engagement by campus constituencies Drawing upon the concept of collective impact and using data driven decision making place based initiatives build long term partnerships based upon a shared vision Done thoughtfully these place based initiatives have attained impressive results Drawing upon the case studies of five institutions that have implemented place based community engagement initiatives the authors provide guidance on the opportunities challenges and considerations involved in putting a place based approach into effect By sharing the experiences of these five institutions they describe in detail the routes each took to turn their place based initiatives from concept to reality and the results they achieved

Therapeutic Engagement of Children and Adolescents David A. Crenshaw, 2008-02-28 This book addresses the issues that child and adolescent therapists struggle with the most how to meaningfully engage and create conditions for transformative change with children and teens who are unwilling participants at the outset and who regard any allowed influence by the therapist to be a competitive defeat To engage these particularly reluctant children Dr Crenshaw has expanded the variety of stories offered in a previous book Engaging Resistant Children in Therapy and added not only drawing but symbol work and play therapy variations to offers choices and a range of tools to involve them in a meaningful collaborative therapeutic process The book begins with a review of research and a rationale for using tools consisting of symbolic play for younger children and the therapeutic use of symbols drawing and storytelling in order to create portals of entry to reach disconnected children The book is organized in chapters along major therapeutic goals as follows with specific tools described to meet the objectives the challenge of therapeutic engagement with reluctant children relational strategies to engage heart and mind the therapeutic use of symbols to access the internal and relational worlds of the child or teen building the therapeutic alliance with strategies that honor strengths strategies to strengthen the self observer facilitating empathy for self and others strategies to access the pain of social rejection tools to address grief and traumatic loss the quest for home strategies and the delicate operation of facilitating hope The strategies described were chosen and developed based on and informed by a vast developmental psychopathology
