Anticipation Guide

Directions: Read each statement and indicate whether you do or don't agree or disagree with each statement. When you agree, write agree in the space below.

1. I must use time wisely and forever realize that the time is always ripe to do right.

2. No one wants to die. Even people who want to go to heaven don't want to die to get there.

3. Remembering that I'll be dead soon is the most important thing I ever experience to help me make the right choices in life. Because almost everything — all material possessions, all pride, all fear of embarrassment or failure — these things just fall away in the face of death, leaving only what is truly important.

4. Do not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future, concentrate the mind on the present moment.

5. While I thought that I was learning how to live, I have been learning how to die.
