The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

New Perspectives on Gender Based Violence: from Research to Intervention, volume II Shulamit Ramon, Luca Rollè, 2024-04-19 This Research Topic is the second volume of the series New Perspectives on Gender based Violence from Research to Intervention The first volume is available here Volume I The European Institute for Gender Equality and the WHO underlined that the Gender based violence GBV and the Violence Against Women VAW involves principally women but also men families and the societies in which they live The GBV and the VAW reinforce the gender inequalities which are steeped in the cultural aspects and gender roles that either support and justify it The United Nations defines VAW as any act of gender based violence that results in or is likely to result in physical sexual or mental harm or suffering to women including threats of such acts coercion or arbitrary deprivation of liberty whether occurring in public or in private life Many organizations practitioners and researchers have emphasized how GBV and VAW have increased exponentially since the outbreak of the Covid 19 Pandemic and how access to protection and advocacy services has become increasingly difficult

Handbook of the Life Course Michael J. Shanahan, Jeylan T. Mortimer, Monica Kirkpatrick Johnson, 2015-10-26 Building on the success of the 2003 Handbook of the Life Course this second volume identifies future directions for life course research and policy The introductory essay and the chapters that make up the five sections of this book show consensus on strategic next steps in life course studies These next steps are explored in detail in each section Section I on life course theory provides fresh perspectives on well established topics including cohorts life stages and legal and regulatory contexts It challenges life course scholars to move beyond common individualistic paradigms Section II highlights changes in major institutional and organizational contexts of the life course It draws on conceptual advances and recent empirical findings to identify promising avenues for research that illuminate the interplay between structure and agency It examines trends in family school and workplace as well as contexts that deserve heightened attention including the military the criminal justice system and natural and man made disaster The remaining three sections consider advances and suggest strategic opportunities in the study of health and development throughout the life course They explore methodological innovations including qualitative and three generational longitudinal research designs causal analysis growth curves and the study of place Finally they show ways to build bridges between life course research and public policy
