Lopez,2024-05-31 We have come to admire Buddhism for being profound but accessible as much a lifestyle as a religion The credit for creating Buddhism goes to the Buddha a figure widely respected across the Western world for his philosophical insight his teachings of nonviolence and his practice of meditation But who was this Buddha and how did he become the Buddha we know and love today Leading historian of Buddhism Donald S Lopez Jr tells the story of how various idols carved in stone variously named Beddou Codam Xaca and Fo became the man of flesh and blood that we know simply as the Buddha He reveals that the positive view of the Buddha in Europe and America is rather recent originating a little more than a hundred and fifty years ago For centuries the Buddha was condemned by Western writers as the most dangerous idol of the Orient He was a demon the murderer of his mother a purveyor of idolatry Lopez provides an engaging history of depictions of the Buddha from classical accounts and medieval stories to the testimonies of European travelers diplomats soldiers and missionaries He shows that centuries of hostility toward the Buddha changed dramatically in the nineteenth century when the teachings of the Buddha having disappeared from India by the fourteenth century were read by European scholars newly proficient in Asian languages At the same time the traditional view of the Buddha persisted in Asia where he was revered as much for his supernatural powers as for his philosophical insights From Stone to Flesh follows the twists and turns of these Eastern and Western notions of the Buddha leading finally to his triumph as the founder of a world religion Thinker, Thought and Knowledge V.N. Mishra,2022-11-08 Thinker Thought and Knowledge critically and analytically reasons that some of the philosophical expositions like thought has created the thinker and higher order thoughts are themselves conscious hinder us from explaining our sense of unity of consciousness This book presents and elucidates some observations thought cannot create thinker along with thinker and thought thinking too is quintessential for individual experience to take place thinker thinking and thought are fundamentally one in self consciousness thought becomes the object of self consciousness and the modern science attempts to undermine the principle of causation from the East West perspective and registers its disapproval with the philosophical views of scholars like J Krishnamurti and a few other modern philosophers Coming to the knowledge aspect the volume delineates the relative existence and knowledge dealing with the absolute reality and discusses it on the basis of Advaita Vedanta and the Yogic realization of the Buddhist philosophy along with Immanuel Kant's theory of knowledge The researcher's approach employed in this volume should help the students of philosophy and other discerning readers take an analytical and critical positioning towards many a philosophical problem that they come across Walking in Two Worlds Stephen G.
