Farmer's Weekly ,1926 Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials Juilee Decker,2023-07-05 Fallen

Monuments and Contested Memorials examines how the modification destruction or absence of monuments and memorials can be viewed as performative acts that challenge prescribed embodied narratives in the public realm Bringing together international multidisciplinary approaches the chapters in this volume interrogate the ways in which memorial constructions disclose implicitly and explicitly the proxy battle for public memory and identity particularly since 2015 Acknowledging the ways in which the past which is given agency through monuments and memorials intrudes into daily life this volume offers perspectives from researchers that answer questions about the roles of monuments and memorials as persistent yet mutable works whose meanings are not fixed but are rather subject to processes of continual re interpretation By using monuments and memorials as lenses through which to view race memory and the legacies of war power and subjugation this volume demonstrates how these works and their visible representations of entitlement possession control and authority can offer the opportunity to pose and answer questions about whose memory matters and what our symbols say about who we are and what we value Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials is essential reading for scholars and students studying cultural heritage history art history and public history It will be particularly useful to those with an interest in public monuments and memorials colonial and post colonial history memory studies and nationalism race and ethnic studies Journal of Character Education Jacques S. Benninga,Marvin W Berkowitz,2021-04-01 Sample Chapters FOR THE BETTER Marvin W Berkowitz University of Missouri St Louis THE OVERLOOKED INEQUITY Eric Schaps The Journal of Character Education is the only professional journal in education devoted to character education It is designed to cover the field from the latest research to applied best practices We include original research reports editorials and conceptual articles by the best minds in our field reviews of the latest books and other relevant strategies and manuscripts by educators that describe best practices in teaching and learning related to character education The Journal of Character Education has for over a decade been the sole scholarly journal focused on research theory measurement and practice of character education In this issue of the Journal of Character Education we return to something foundational and introduce something new The foundational element is a set of six independent scholarly manuscripts by a mix of emerging and established scholars We are pleased to introduce a new feature of the Journal of Character Education in this issue namely a section we are calling simply Opinion We began the JCE with an exclusive focus on publishing scholarship because there was no scholarly journal that focused on character education Over time we realized that we wanted to speak about practice and particularly to practitioners as well Hence we created a section we call Voices to present innovations and perspectives representing the voices of exemplary practitioners of character education Now we introduce the Opinion section that will allow us to publish perspectives from leading authorities in the field that might be more provocative We would love to hear responses to either or both opinion articles and are working on plans to share such responses perhaps on one of our related websites At this point we plan on publishing more opinion articles and for now by invitation However we are always willing to consider unsolicited articles for possible inclusion in the JCE The Advertising & Press Annual of All Africa ,1979 Promadata, Promotion, Marketing & Advertising Data ,1978 Includes index The Railway Gazette ,1959 Who's who of Southern Africa ,1982 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who s who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa The Farmer's Weekly ,1930 Commercial Directory ,1999
