But that doesn't mean we don't care passionately about the environment. Luckily the days when becoming environmentally aware entailed eating bread that tasted like dirt, wearing clothes that looked like frayed burlap sacks, and spending summer vacations assailing whaling ships with Greenpeace are passing away. In The Lazy Environmentalist, Josh Dorfman, host of the Sirius Satellite Radio program of the same name, provides comprehensive guidance to fashion-forward consumers who are as concerned about the long-term health of our planet as they are about the design of their bathroom fixtures. Covering topics that range from clothing to electronic gadgetry, home decor to recreation and gardening to financial investment, Dorfman lets us know which trends to watch and which eco-conscious products, cars, toothbrushes, cell phones, pet accessories, to buy. Green, it turns out, can be an extremely stylish color. Every day most of us have to choose between products that either look the same or do the same thing. So why not buy the product that causes the least harm to the planet? The Lazy Environmentalist is a useful guide toward making the right decisions.
