The Cancer Of Corruption:

The Cancer Within Cristina A. Pop, 2022-05-13 The Cancer Within examines cervical cancer in Romania as a point of entry into an anthropological reflection on contemporary health care. Cervical cancer prevention reveals the inner workings of emerging post communist medicine which aligns the state and the market public and private health care providers policy makers and ordinary women. Fashioned by patriarchal relations lived religion and the historical trauma of pronatalism Romanian women's responses to reproductive medicine and cervical cancer prevention are complicated by neoliberal reforms to medical care. Cervical cancer prevention and especially the HPV vaccination provided Romanians a legitimate instance to express their conflicting views of post communist medicine. What sets Romania apart is that pronatalism patriarchy lived religion medical reforms and moral contestation of preventive medicine bring into line systemic contingencies that expose the historical social and cultural trajectories of cervical cancer.

Covering four broad themes: global economy, global human development, global environment and global governance, this comprehensive volume provides an introduction to today's most pressing global issues from poverty.

Baratchart, 2022-03-08 The New Witness, 1922 Corruption - the World's Big C Ian Senior, 2006 There is general agreement that the world would be a better place without corruption but there is less general understanding of precisely what constitutes corruption. In this book Ian Senior carefully defines corruption and finds that it is all too prevalent not just in developing countries but also within the institutions of governments within the EU. The book analyses the causes and consequences of corruption. There are many social and moral problems created by corruption but from an economic perspective it has to be regarded as a serious impediment to the proper functioning of a market economy. It also has the effect of redistributing wealth away from the poor towards the better off and towards employees of government. Ian Senior proposes a zero tolerance approach to rooting out corruption. In particular we should not give aid to the governments of under developed countries or use corrupt agencies for the distribution of aid. This monograph reminds us just how widespread corruption is and of the serious damage it can cause to the development of a market economy and a free society.
