

The Orange

At lunchtime I bought a huge orange
The size of it made us all laugh.
I peeled it and shared it with Robert and Dave
They got quarters and I had a half.
And that orange, it made me so happy,
As ordinary things often do
Just lately. The shopping. A walk in the park.
This is peace and contentment. It's new.
The rest of the day was quite easy.
I did all the jobs on my list
And enjoyed them and had some time over.
I love you. I'm glad I exist.

The Of Orange Dave Poems:

The Book of Orange Dave Toni Hanner, 2015-01-07 The seed for the Orange Dave poems was planted at the 2004 Centrum Port Townsend Writers Conference Three years later after meeting my family for the first time my partner Michael Hanner wrote the first Orange Dave poem Family I wrote some sixty Orange Dave poems over the next few years He became an obsession and a friend I hope you like him 44 Poems on Being with Each Other Pádraig Ó. Tuama, 2025-02-04 This celebratory anthology explores human connection through forty four poems curated by P draig Tuama the host of On Being s Poetry Unbound podcast 44 Poems on Being with Each Other is a new volume that offers immersive reflections on the human connection With an observant eye P draig Tuama shares an enlightening meditation on each poem revealing the ways we relate to each other the world around us and ourselves Among the selections Tuama examines friendship and its loss through Langston Hughes s I Loved My Friend changing familial bonds in Rita Dove s Eurydice Turning the relationship with the past in Mary Oliver s The Uses of Sorrow the power of declaration in Lucille Clifton s Won t You Celebrate with Me and the necessity of connection to land in Joy Harjo s Conflict Resolution for Holy Beings Blending humor with insight tension with tenderness complexity with care 44 Poems on Being with Each Other articulates the power of poetry itself Through careful and incisive readings it illuminates aspects of the human condition particularly the ways we are inextricably linked to each other and provides inspiration for grounded self reflection It is an anthology that will delight readers just as P draig s podcast has done for millions around the world The Recovering Leslie Jamison, 2018-04-03 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Empathy Exams comes this transformative work showing that sometimes the recovery is more gripping than the addiction With its deeply personal and seamless blend of memoir cultural history literary criticism and reportage The Recovering turns our understanding of the traditional addiction narrative on its head demonstrating that the story of recovery can be every bit as electrifying as the train wreck itself Leslie Jamison deftly excavates the stories we tell about addiction both her own and others and examines what we want these stories to do and what happens when they fail us All the while she offers a fascinating look at the larger history of the recovery movement and at the complicated bearing that race and class have on our understanding of who is criminal and who is ill At the heart of the book is Jamison s ongoing conversation with literary and artistic geniuses whose lives and works were shaped by alcoholism and substance dependence including John Berryman Jean Rhys Billie Holiday Raymond Carver Denis Johnson and David Foster Wallace as well as brilliant lesser known figures such as George Cain lost to obscurity but newly illuminated here Through its unvarnished relation of Jamison s own ordeals The Recovering also becomes a book about a different kind of dependency the way our desires can make us all as she puts it broken spigots of need It s about the particular loneliness of the human experience the craving for love that both devours us and shapes who we are For her striking language and piercing observations Jamison has been compared to such iconic writers as Joan Didion and Susan Sontag yet her utterly singular voice also offers
