Scandal Nick Wallis, 2021-11-18 The Great Post Office Scandal is the extraordinary story behind the recent ITV drama series Mr Bates vs The Post Office This gripping page turner recounts how thousands of subpostmasters were accused of theft and false accounting on the back of evidence from Horizon the flawed computer system designed by Fujitsu and how a group of them led by Alan Bates took their fight to the High Court Their eventual victory in court vindicated their claims about the defects of the software and exposed the heavy handed attempts by the Post Office to suppress them The book also chronicles how successive senior managers business leaders lawyers civil servants and Government ministers at best failed to expose the injustice or even worse sought to cover it up resulting in one of the largest miscarriages of justice in UK history The author Nick Wallis is a journalist and broadcaster who has been reporting on the scandal for over ten years and who acted as script consultant on Mr Bates vs The Post Office the ITV drama that brought the affair into the national consciousness As the public inquiry reaches its climax and senior figures such as Paula Vennells come to be questioned The Great Post Office Scandal reveals the full scale of what happened and will leave you enraged at how so many of our trusted institutions allowed the saga to go on for nearly a quarter of a century shattering the lives of thousands of innocent people The Voices of War Michael Caulfield, 2010-11-01 Drawn from engagements ranging from World War I through to operations in East Timor and Iraq these stories are taken from the Australians at War Film Archive a collection of the memories of more than 2000 Australians who have served both on the front line and at home Some are unbelievably unbearably tragic even after sixty or seventy years others are the golden memories of happy albeit unusual times And more often than not they are stories that have never been shared with others even family members There are stories from winners of the Victoria Cross from the POW camps of Asia and Europe from the patrols of Vietnam through to those who served as peacekeepers in Rwanda and Somalia There are stories from nurses from those who have volunteered to serve with aid agencies and stories of ordinary Australians caught up by circumstances and by duty in wartime These are their words An Encyclopaedia of British Bridges David McFetrich, 2019-04-30 An already impressive reference work has been made significantly more valuable a well illustrated alphabetized compendium of notable bridges The Happy Pontist Bridges have a universal appeal as examples of man's mastery of nature from picturesque packhorse bridges to great spans stretching across broad estuaries and the development of the technology that allows ever more audacious constructions is never ending Of the million or more bridges throughout Great Britain David McFetrich has selected those that are significant in terms of their design construction or location or of their connections with people or events of history His definitive book contains 1 600 separate entries for individual bridge sites or related groups of bridges covering more than 2 000 different structures 165 general entries about different types of bridge and such topics as collapses and failures and a summary of about 200 record holding bridges in 50 different categories The concise text is supported by more than 900 illustrations and diagrams The result is a fascinating and readily accessible compendium The Institute of Civil Engineers ICA is also on board A valuable resource to use if you plan to visit

some of these structures while on holiday or are merely planning a day out East Yorkshire Family History Society Well written and researched and eminently readable Because of the ubiquity of bridges throughout Great Britain this volume should have wide appeal NZ Crown Mines Full of details covering the many bridges around the UK I found it fascinating to see the variety of bridges around Britain even the ones not railway related Rail Advent Country Life ,1971-04 Federal Register ,2013-04 Blue Ribbon: College Basketball Yearbook , Indiana Travel Guide ,2000 Harness Horse ,1991 Commerce Business Daily ,2000 1987 OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA ,1987 Indiana Labor Market Letter ,1972 Hoosier Farmer ,1993 Martins of Mooretown Kathleen A.
