The Book of the Damned Charles Fort, 2020-08-05 A procession of the damned By the damned I mean the excluded We shall have a procession of data that Science has excluded Battalions of the accursed captained by pallid data that I have exhumed will march You'll read them or they'll march Some of them livid and some of them fiery and some of them rotten Some of them are corpses skeletons mummies twitching tottering animated by companions that have been damned alive There are giants that will walk by though sound asleep There are things that are theorems and things that are rags they ll go by like Euclid arm in arm with the spirit of anarchy Here and there will flit little harlots Many are clowns But many are of the highest respectability Some are assassins There are pale stenchers and gaunt superstitions and mere shadows and lively malices whims and amiabilities The naive and the pedantic and the bizarre and the grotesque and the sincere and the insincere the profound and the puerile A stab and a laugh and the patiently folded hands of hopeless propriety The ultra respectable but the condemned anyway The aggregate appearance is of dignity and dissoluteness the aggregate voice is a defiant prayer but the spirit of the whole is processional The power that has said to all these things that they are damned is Dogmatic Science But they ll march The little harlots will caper and freaks will distract attention and the clowns will break the rhythm of the whole with their buffooneries but the solidity of the procession as a whole the impressiveness of things that pass and pass and pass and keep on and keep on and keep on coming
