The Beast Within The Hounds Of Hell Book English Edition:

Our Dogs, Our Selves, 2016-09-12 The ubiquity of references to dogs in medieval and early modern texts and images must at some level reflect their actual presence in those worlds yet scholarly consideration of this material is rare and scattered across diverse sources This volume addresses that gap bringing together fifteen essays that examine the appearance meaning and significance of dogs in painting sculpture manuscripts literature and legal records of the period reaching beyond Europe to include cultural material from medieval Japan and Islam While primarily art historical in focus the authors approach the subject from a range of disciplines and with varying methodology that ultimately reveals as much about dogs as about the societies in which they lived Contributors are Kathleen Ashley Jane Carroll Emily Cockayne John Block Friedman Karen M Gerhart Laura D Gelfand Craig A Gibson Walter S Gibson Nathan Hofer Jane C Long Judith W Mann Sophie Oosterwijk Elizabeth Carson Pastan Donna L Sadler Alexa Sand and Janet Snyder The Beast Within Joyce E. Salisbury, 2022-03-09 The third edition of The Beast Within has been updated throughout to include current scholarship new discussion of definitions and fresh perspectives on critical animal theory that places animals rather than humans at the center of the discourse Organized thematically Salisbury incorporates many new sections and subsections to reveal the multifaceted history of the relationship between humans and animals domestication animal diseases and pandemics dogfights cockfights Islamic dietary restrictions menageries and zoos and animals as entertainers To show how modern concerns have been informed by medieval precedents sections have been expanded to uncover medieval understandings of animal sexuality animals before the law and vegetarianism and modern fake meat The logical narrative concludes with chapters on Animals as Humans and Humans as Animals demonstrating that the lines between humans and animals have become increasingly blurred from the fourth to the twenty first century With an interdisciplinary approach that discusses humans and animals in relation to domestication symbolism science law religion food and diet sexuality and entertainment The Beast Within is an essential resource for all students of animal history literature and art in the Middle Ages History of English Literature Hippolyte Taine, 1879 History of English Literature Taine, 1873 The Works in Prose and Verse Printed from the Original Editions with a Life of the Author John Milton, 1863 The Rambler in Worcestershire; Or, Stray Notes on Churches and Congregations John Noake, 1848 The Hedgerows Heaped with May Stephen Moss, 2012-10-18 An exploration of everything the countryside means to us from a hundred years of the Telegraph's archive The Telegraph is as its former editor Max Hastings identified more than any other national broadsheet the newspaper of the countryside which over the years has been written about in its pages by such distinguished writers as J H B Peel John Betjeman and W F Deedes alongside eminent modern naturalists like Richard Mabey and even unlikely proponents of the rural life like Boris Johnson This anthology is no bland celebration of bucolic idyll but rather an exploration of everything that the countryside represents to the British For some it means the reintroduction of long lost wildlife such as the red kite or ancient crafts like thatching
