So are you ready? Lucia asked with a bright smile, her tone almost too cheerful. You remember everything, right? Isaac's favorite meal. Elias's schedule. Yes, Maria. I remember everything, she cut in, rolling her eyes. I stayed up all night memorizing and practicing it all. The final toast was coming. After that, Lucia would take her place in the car and Maria would disappear. He runs a hand through his hair, the weight of it all pressing on his shoulders. You think I married you out of pity? You think I hate your silence? No, I hate that your silence keeps me locked out. That I love you and you'll never hear it. To the world, Maria is the perfect silent wife: beautiful, obedient, and deaf. But behind closed doors, she hears everything, including the love her cold billionaire husband swears he'll never confess. When she secretly trades places with her troubled twin, a web of lies, danger, and forbidden truths unravels. He thinks he's lost the only woman he's ever loved. She may never make it back to him alive. A marriage built on silence. A love louder than words. And a secret that could destroy them both. Forever Yours Valentine's Day Sampler Various Authors, 2013-02-12

Journalist Julie Satow's thrilling unforgettable history of how one illustrious hotel has defined our understanding of money and glamour from the Gilded Age to the Go Go Eighties to today's Billionaire Row From the moment in 1907 when New York millionaire Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt strode through the Plaza Hotel's revolving doors to become its first guest to the afternoon in 2007 when a mysterious Russian oligarch paid a record price for the hotel's largest penthouse the eighteen story white marble edifice at the corner of Fifth Avenue and 59th Street has radiated wealth and luxury For some the hotel evokes images of F Scott Fitzgerald frolicking in the Pulitzer Fountain or Eloise the impish young guest who pours water down the mail chute But the true stories captured in THE PLAZA also include dark hidden secrets the cold blooded murder perpetrated by the construction workers in charge of building the hotel how Donald J Trump came to be the only owner to ever bankrupt the Plaza and the tale of the disgraced Indian tycoon who ran the hotel from a maximum security prison cell 7 000 miles away in Delhi In this definitive history award winning journalist Julie Satow not only pulls back the curtain on Truman Capote's Black and White Ball and The Beatles first stateside visit she also follows the money trail THE PLAZA reveals how a handful of rich dowager widows were the financial lifeline that saved the hotel during the Great Depression and how today foreign money and anonymous shell companies have transformed iconic guest rooms into condominiums that shield ill gotten gains hollowing out parts of the hotel as well as the city around it THE PLAZA is the account of one vaunted New York City address that has become synonymous with wealth and scandal opportunity and tragedy With glamour on the surface and strife behind the scenes it is the story of how one hotel became a mirror reflecting New York's place at the center of the country's cultural narrative for over a century
