Luxury and Wealth in Sparta and the Peloponnese Chrysanthi Gallou, Stephen Hodkinson, 2022-10-01 A Spartan lifestyle proverbially describes austerity ancient Greek luxury was associated with Ionia and the oriental world The contributions to this book first presented at a conference held by the University of Nottingham s Centre for Spartan and Peloponnesian Studies reverse the stereotype and explore the role of luxury and wealth at Sparta and among its Peloponnesian neighbors from the Iron Age to the Hellenistic period Using literary archaeological epigraphic and numismatic evidence an international team of specialists investigates the definition and changing meanings of the term luxury and its nearest ancient Greek equivalents providing new insights into Sparta s supposed abstention from luxury and the way that this was portrayed by ancient writers They analyse wealth production and private and public spending emphasising features that were distinctive to Sparta and the Peloponnese compared with other parts of ancient Greece Other chapters investigate issues still familiar in the contemporary world economic crisis and debt austerity measures and relief provisions for the poor

The Oxford Handbook of Greek Cities in the Roman Empire, 2024-11-22 This handbook provides the first comprehensive treatment of the Greek cities in the Roman Empire The poleis are studied here both as urban forms with a specific organization of space and specific public buildings and as socio political entities with specific institutions and social hierarchies The contributions cover all the important aspects of civic life and present the on going debates on the degree of integration and autonomy uniformization and diversity of the Greek civic model in the Roman Empire One of the main guidelines of the handbook is the issue of the impact of Roman rule on the long lasting Greek model of political social and spatial organization Geographically the volume covers the whole Roman Empire with a focus on regions where the Greek polis was the dominant form of organization such as mainland Greece the Aegean Islands Asia Minor Syria and the Black Sea region In addition to that the Greek cities of Sicily and Egypt as well as more isolated Greek settlements such as Cyrene in North Africa are also considered The chronological scope of the handbook runs from a community s integration into the Roman Empire varying depending on the region until the 3rd c AD when the epigraphic documentation strongly decreases and some important changes make way for the transition to Late Antiquity

Pauline Baptism among the Mysteries Donghyun Jeong, 2023-07-04 This monograph provides an alternative model for looking at the old question about Paul and the mysteries in a new light Specifically this study compares rituals baptism in the Pauline communities and the initiation rituals of the mysteries through the lens of cultural anthropology and the sociology of religion Three research questions lead the project What benefits does each initiation ritual promise its participants What are the underlying messages or structures that guarantee the efficacy of those rituals How and to what extent is the initiation ritual connected to the participants cognition and ethics beyond initiation itself Taking those questions as the analytical framework this study substantiates two points first in terms of ritual messages baptism in the Pauline communities is a ritual analogous to mystery initiation and second Paul is an innovative interpreter of ritual who recalibrates the messages of preexisting rituals for his theological and ethical program seeking to radically extend the implications of initiation to the embodied life of every Christ believer Students and scholars of New Testament early Christianity classics and ritual studies will benefit from engaging this volume

The Power of Urban Water Nicola Chiarenza, Annette Haug, Ulrich Müller, 2020-05-05 Water is a global resource for modern societies and water was a global resource for pre modern societies The many different water systems serving processes of urbanisation and urban life in ancient times and the Middle Ages have hardly been researched until now The numerous contributions to this volume pose questions such as what the basic cultural significance of water was the power of water in the town and for the town from different points of view Symbolic aesthetic and cult aspects are taken up as is the role of water in politics society and economy in daily life but also in processes of urban planning or in urban neighbourhoods Not least the dangers of polluted water or of flooding presented a challenge to urban society The contributions in this volume draw attention to the complex manifold relations between water and human beings This collection presents the results of an international conference in Kiel in 2018 It is directed towards both scholars in ancient and mediaeval studies and all those interested in the diversity of water systems in urban space in ancient and mediaeval times

Early Christianity in Athens, Attica, and Adjacent Areas Cilliers Breytenbach, Elli Tzavella, 2022-11-14 This volume focuses on Christianity in Attica and its metropolis Athens from Paul s initial visit in the first century up to the closing of the philosophical schools under the reign of Justinian I in the sixth century Underscoring the relevance of epigraphic resources and the importance of methodological sophistication in analysing especially archaeological evidence it readdresses many questions on the basis of a larger body of evidence and aims to combine literary epigraphic and archaeological evidence in order to create the outlines of a narrative of the rise and development of Christianity in the area It is the first interdisciplinary study on the local history of Christianity in the area

Hellenistic Pottery Sarah A. James, 2018-08-20 Using deposits recently excavated from the Panayia Field this volume substantially revises the absolute chronology of Corinthian Hellenistic pottery as established by G Roger Edwards in Corinth VII 3 1975 This new research based on quantitative analysis of over 50 deposits demonstrates that the date range for most fine ware shapes should be lowered by 50 100 years Contrary to previous assumptions it is now possible to argue that local ceramic production continued in Corinth during the interim period between the destruction of the city in 146 B C and when it was refounded as a Roman colony in 44 B C This volume includes detailed shape studies and a comprehensive catalogue With its presentation of this revised Panayia Field chronology Corinth VII 7 is a long awaited and much needed addition to the Corinth series

Marble Statuettes of the Roman Period Brian Martens, 2025-07-18 The excavations of the Athenian Agora have played a major role in bringing to light the rich sculptural legacy of ancient Athens The project's storerooms boast one of the most important bodies of sculpture from classical antiquity covering the complete range and history of output in a storied center of artistic production This volume presents for the first time the marble statuettes and statuette fragments carved between the 1st century BCE and the 4th century CE that have been excavated from the Agora since 1931 Comprising one in six figural sculptures found at the site these works are testament to a thriving demand for small divine images in Roman period Greece that has been insufficiently recognized until now Among these broken and battered figures are the portraits of polytheistic Athens naked Aphrodite at her bath winged Eros assisting his mother tired Herakles after a labor teenage Artemis aiming her bow attentive Asklepios dispatching cures The author marshals a detailed and heavily illustrated catalogue of 672 objects to offer new data to the study of Greek iconography and sculptural production Taken as a collective whole the statuettes document the vibrant religion society and art of Athens and beyond

The West Naoise Mac Sweeney, 2023-05-23 A bold sweeping bird's eye view of thousands of years of history that provides a truly global perspective of the past A fantastic achievement Peter Frankopan internationally bestselling author of The Silk Roads Prize winning historian Naoise Mac Sweeney delivers a captivating exploration of how Western Civilization the concept of a single cultural inheritance extending from ancient Greece to modern times is a powerful figment of our collective imagination An urgently needed emergent voice in big history she offers a bold new account of Western history real and imagined through the lives of fourteen remarkable individuals In this groundbreaking story driven retelling of Western history Naoise Mac Sweeney debunks the myths and origin stories that underpin the history we thought we knew Told through fourteen figures who each played a role in the creation of the Western idea from Herodotus a mixed race migrant to Phyllis Wheatley an enslaved African American who became a literary sensation and from Gladstone with a private passion for epic poetry to the medieval Arab scholar Al Kindi the subjects are a mind expanding blend of unsung heroes and familiar faces viewed afresh These characters span the millennia and the continents representing different religions varying levels of wealth and education diverse traditions and nationalities Each life tells us something unexpected about the age in which it was lived and offers us a piece of the puzzle of how the modern idea of the West developed and why we've misunderstood it for too long The concept of the West is present in every daily interaction you have from entertainment and politics to world markets and world history This engagingly intimate history will reshape the way you see the world around you At this moment of civilizational redefinition if we are to chart a future for the West we must properly understand its past

The Gymnasium Area Mary C. Sturgeon, 2023-03-06 Volume XXIII in the Corinth series is dedicated to the finds from the Gymnasium Area excavated between 1965 and 1972 by James R Wiseman and the University of Texas at Austin Fascicle XXIII 1 presents the marble sculpture 126 pieces dating between the 6th century B C and 5th century A D and found in or near a variety of built features including the ornately decorated Bath Fountain complex Among the sculptural finds are portraits of athletes and civic officials and depictions of Dionysos Hermes and Aphrodite and the nymphs Herms and statue bases also form part of the assemblage This corpus grants us insight into the sculptural practices after the founding of the Roman colony at Corinth and critical knowledge concerning display context reuse and the deposition of sculpture at a gymnasium in a large regional center of the eastern Mediterranean The Sanctuary of Demeter and Kore Sonia Klinger,2022-01-03 This volume presents the terracotta miscellaneous finds from the Sanctuary of Demeter and Kore at Acrocorinth The finds comprise 21 classes including protomes and masks altars plaques models of various personal and household items and loomweights and other textile tools the latter initially studied by Gloria S Merker and brought to publication by Nancy Bookidis In addition to providing a catalogue of the finds arranged according to their subjects the authors compare these finds with similar objects found elsewhere in Greece and refer to literary epigraphical and visual sources to understand their possible uses and meanings and the character of religious activity that may have triggered their dedication in the sanctuary This volume will greatly facilitate comparative studies of ancient Greek miscellaneous finds and will be an important reference for historians of Greek art as well as of Greek religion

East of the Theater Anastassios C. Antonaras,2023-01-13 Corinth has been an important site for the study of ancient glass since the pioneering work of Gladys Davidson Weinberg This volume presents the first attempt at Corinth to analyze the entire corpus of glass found in a single area that located just east of the Theater the focus of excavations conducted by the American School of Classical Studies in the 1980s These excavations revealed a north south street that flanked the Theater as well as a series of buildings to its east part of a residential neighborhood ranging in date from the Early Roman to the Early Byzantine period In this volume the first of the final reports from the East of Theater excavations the author presents the glass finds including over 450 cataloged examples of glassworking remains vessel glass and non vessel glass Significantly these finds reveal shifting patterns in vessel types manufacturing techniques and trade as well as evidence for local glass production throughout these periods Included among the finds are fragments of two opus sectile panels evidence of the type of luxurious decoration that once existed in these structures This groundbreaking study provides a tantalizing glimpse into the lives of everyday Corinthians advancing glass studies both within Greece and throughout the Mediterranean The Julian Basilica Catherine de Grazia Vanderpool,Carolynn Roncaglia,Paul D. Scotton,2022-07-14 Early 20th century explorations of the Roman Forum at Ancient Corinth revealed a massive early imperial building now known as the Julian Basilica The structure stood on a podium over four meters high and it dominated the east end of the forum in size aspect and function until its destruction in the 4th century A D Within it was one of the largest known shrines to the imperial cult and the likely site of the imperial court of law for the Roman province of Achaia The basilica housed 11 or more large scale statues most likely to members of the Julio Claudian family including Augustus Augustus s heirs Gaius and Lucius and arguably Divus Iulius Germanicus Nero Caesar and Claudius as well as an altar to Divus Augustus and dedications to the genius Augusti the gens Augusta and other family members This richly illustrated volume provides a contextual study of this important building the remains of which were first published by Saul Weinberg in 1960 Corinth I 5 Scotton treats the architectural remains Vanderpool the sculptural remains and Roncaglia the epigraphical material each providing extensive catalogues with new photos in addition to color reconstructions of the basilica and its grand interior Apotropaia and Phylakteria: Confronting Evil in Ancient Greece Maria G. Spathi, Maria Chidioglou, Jenny Wallensten, 2024-05-02 The belief in the existence of evil forces was part of ancient everyday life and a phenomenon deeply embedded in popular thought of the Greek world Stemming from a conference held in Athens in June 2021 this volume addresses the apotropaia and phylakteria from different perspectives via literary sources archaeological material and iconography On the Edge of a Roman Port Elena Korka, Joseph L. Rife, 2023-01-09 Between 2007 and 2014 a Greek American team investigated an impressive array of Early Roman to Early Byzantine buildings and burials on the Koutsongila Ridge at Kenchreai the eastern port of ancient Corinth This volume presents the project s final results revealing abundant evidence not only for the history of activity in a transitional urban suburban landscape but also for the society economy and religion of local residents Important structural and mortuary discoveries abound including a district of lavish houses with exquisite mosaic pavement and an Early Christian Octagon The large artifactual assemblage encompasses a variety of objects from pottery and lamps to glass coins and jewelry Bones and teeth from over 200 individuals illustrate differences in health over time while thousands of bones and shells from a variety of animals attest to diet and subsistence This study paints a picture of a Corinthian community small but prosperous and well connected actively participating in an urban elite culture expressed through decorative art and monumental architecture
