The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1926 Music in Kenyan Christianity Jean Ngoya Kidula, 2013-09-11 The book contains an excellent mix of deep personal understanding of the culture and copious documentation Eric Charry Wesleyan University This sensitive study is a historical cultural and musical exploration of Christian religious music among the Logooli of Western Kenya It describes how new musical styles developed through contact with popular radio and other media from abroad and became markers of the Logooli identity and culture Jean Ngoya Kidula narrates this history of a community through music and religious expression in local national and global settings The book is generously enhanced by audiovisual material on the Ethnomusicology Multimedia website The archival and ethnographic research is outstanding the accounts of mission history and then the musical explanations of a variety of forms of change that have accompanied mission intervention the incursion of forms of modernity and globalization at large are compelling and unparalleled Carol Muller University of Pennsylvania Explores contemporary African music through the prism of ethnographies through the people s engagement of Christianity as a unifying ideology in the context of history modernity nationalisms and globalisation Journal of Modern African Studies The meticulous and sometimes highly sophisticated musical analyses transcriptions and the rich historical and ethnographic perspectives illuminate not only ongoing discourses and contestations of syncretism and related analytical notions they also represent a plausible model of a balanced approach to ethnomusicology International Journal of African Historical Studies An essential text for thinking about world Christianities because it approaches a particular African Christianity from both insider and outsider perspectives Global Forum on Arts and Christian Faith Dictionary Catalog of the Music Collection New York Public Library. Reference Department,1964 Bury Me at the Marketplace N. Chabani Manganyi,David Attwell,2009-11-01 When Chabani Manganyi published the first edition of selected letters twenty five years ago as a companion volume to Exiles and Homecomings A Biography of Es kia Mphahlele the idea of Mphahlele s death was remote and poetic The title Bury Me at the Marketplace suggested that immortality of a kind awaited Mphahlele in the very coming and going of those who remember him and whose lives he touched It suggested too the energy and magnanimity of Mphahlele the man whose personality and intellect as a writer and educator would carve an indelible place for him in South Africa s public sphere That death has now come and we mourn it Manganyi s words at the time have acquired a new significance in the symbolic marketplace he noted the drama of life continues relentlessly and the silence of death is unmasked for all time The silence of death is certainly unmasked in this volume in its record of Mphahlele s rich and varied life his private words his passions and obsessions his arguments his loves hopes achievements and yes even some of his failures Here the reader will find many facets of the private man translated back into the marketplace of public memory Despite the personal nature of the letters the further horizons of this volume are the contours of South Africa s literary and cultural history the international affiliations out of which it has been formed particularly in the diaspora that connects South Africa to the rest of the African continent and to the black presence in Europe and the United States This selection of Mphahlele s own letters has been greatly expanded it has also been augmented by the addition of letters from Mphahlele s correspondents among them such luminaries as Langston Hughes and Nadine Gordimer It seeks to illustrate the networks that shaped Mphahlele s personal and intellectual life the circuits of intimacy intellectual inquiry of friendship scholarship and solidarity that he created and nurtured over the years The letters cover the period from November 1943 to April 1987 forty four of Mphahlele s mature years and most of his active professional life The correspondence is supplemented by introductory essays from the two editors by two interviews conducted with Mphahlele by Manganyi and by Attwell s insightful explanatory notes The Christian Union ,1883 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1883 Dictionary of Music Education , Irma H.
