Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors' own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide-ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic-oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom-based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre-service and in-service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing Rosa M. Manchón, Paul Kei

Matsuda, 2016-09-12 The Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing is an authoritative reference compendium of the theory and research on second and foreign language writing that can be of value to researchers professionals and graduate students It is intended both as a retrospective critical reflection that can situate research on L2 writing in its historical context and provide a state-of-the-art view of past achievements and as a prospective critical analysis of what lies ahead in terms of theory research and applications Accordingly the Handbook aims to provide i foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field ii state-of-the-art surveys of available theoretical and research basic and applied insights iii overviews of research methods in L2 writing research iv critical reflections on future developments and iv explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry Written and Spoken Language

INVESTIGATING COMPARABILITY OF WRITING TASKS WITH PICTURE PROMPTS IN AN IN-HOUSE ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST YALI SHI, 2022-04-28

For security reasons using parallel writing tasks within or across different test administrations is common practice in large scale language testing Lack of task comparability would result in unjustified variance in test performance and consequently jeopardize test validity and fairness Thus it is crucial for test developers to gather empirical evidence from different aspects to substantiate the fairness argument that scores are consistent and score based decisions are impartial across parallel tasks Despite many studies hitherto on writing task comparability those addressing picture prompt writing tasks in an integrated manner have remained quite underexplored Therefore this book investigates the comparability of five writing tasks with picture prompts randomly assigned across testing occasions in an in house English proficiency test EPT of a comprehensive university from three perspectives the scores the texts and the raters and test takers Results show that task difficulty is not comparable either in terms of some lexical syntactic and content features elicited or as judged by raters and test takers which could be related with topic familiarity and conceptual clarity of the picture prompt Yet overall task comparability is achieved in not only final scores but also score distribution and classification accuracy The findings support the fairness argument for EPT writing and provide theoretical practical and methodological implications
