Made Up Martha Laham, 2020-10-10 Made Up exposes the multibillion dollar beauty industry that promotes unrealistic beauty standards through a market basket of advertising tricks techniques and technologies Cosmetics magnate Charles Revson a founder of Revlon was quoted as saying In the factory we make cosmetics In the store we sell hope This pioneering entrepreneur who built an empire on the foundation of nail polish captured the unvarnished truth about the beauty business in a single metaphor hope in a jar Made Up How the Beauty Industry Manipulates Consumers Preys on Women s Insecurities and Promotes Unattainable Beauty Standards is a thorough examination of innovative and often controversial advertising practices used by beauty companies to persuade consumers mainly women to buy discretionary goods like cosmetics and scents These approaches are clearly working the average American woman will spend around 300 000 on facial products alone during her lifetime This revealing book traces the evolution of the global beauty industry discovers what makes beauty consumers tick explores the persistence and pervasiveness of the feminine beauty ideal and investigates the myth making power of beauty advertising It also examines stereotypical portrayals of women in beauty ads looks at celebrity beauty endorsements and dissects the looks industry Made Up uncovers the reality behind an Elysian world of fantasy and romance created by beauty brands that won t tell women the truth about beauty Consumer Behaviour Isabelle Szmigin, Maria Piacentini, 2018 A new approach to teaching consumer behaviour incorporating the latest issues in behavioural psychological and sociological learning alongside new areas of research Practitioner commentaries including Renault and Thinkbox and extended case studies featuring Pinterest and Havaianas place this fascinating subject firmly in a real world context Who Owns Whom, 2008 The Spectator, 1927 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Journal of Rehabilitation Research and Development, 1990 Asian Popular Culture Anthony Y.H. Fung, 2013-05-29 This book examines different aspects of Asian popular culture including films TV music comedy folklore cultural icons the Internet and theme parks It raises important questions such as What are the implications of popularity of Asian popular culture for globalization Do regional forces impede the globalizing of cultures Or does the Asian popular culture flow act as a catalyst or conveying channel for cultural globalization Does the globalization of culture pose a threat to local culture It addresses two seemingly contradictory and yet parallel processes in the circulation of Asian popular culture the interconnectedness between Asian popular culture and western culture in an era of cultural globalization that turns subjects such as Pok mon Hip Hop or Cosmopolitan into truly global phenomena and the local derivatives and versions of global culture that are necessarily disconnected from their origins in order to cater for the local market It thereby presents a collective argument that whilst local social formations and patterns of consumption and participation in Asia are still very much dependent on global cultural developments and the phenomena of modernity yet such dependence is often concretized reshaped and distorted by the local media to cater for the local market Contemporary Cinema and the Philosophy of Iris Murdoch

Lucy Bolton,2019-05-22 Bringing together Murdoch s moral philosophy and contemporary cinema to build a dialogue about vision ethics and love author Lucy Bolton encourages us to view cinema as a way of studying other worlds and moral journeys

Time in Fashion Caroline Evans,Alessandra Vaccari,2020-07-09 Few phenomena embody the notion of time as well as fashion Fast moving and rooted in the now it s constantly creating its own past through the process of rapid style change Uniquely poised between the past and the future fashion s relationship with time is unorthodox Rather than considering time in the conventional sense this anthology explores three alternative ways to think about fashion and time the first identifies the seasonal nature of fashion as an industry and shows how this has impacted on workers and wearers alike The second looks at fashion design as a ceaseless process of adaptation reconstruction and recombination of motifs in which nostalgia and revivals play their part The third construes fashion's imaginary with its capacity for fantasy and myth making as a form of alternate history that asks what if Within this framework key classic texts are juxtaposed with lesser known ones in an interdisciplinary approach that includes philosophy history literature media and fashion design ranging from the 18th century to the present It will be of interest to anyone wishing to understand one of the most complex yet inescapable aspects of fashion its relationship to time and will be a critical resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the humanities and all those interested in fashion in all its creative commercial and cultural aspects The Better Mousetrap

Simon Pont, 2012-11-03 Advertising can be great Great advertising that is Brands live or die on the power of their advertising and the advertiser's role is to build better mousetraps But why do we love certain brands and passionately or indifferently reject the rest What do our brands say about us And why do we feel so compelled to use digital brands to say even more Advertising has always been the hard sell and subtle hustle that piques our interest and gets us thinking I WANT that but in a world that now moves with binary speed the Brand Game is taking ever new and remarkable turns in its pursuit of better and faster mice A provocative and insightful look at the chase The Better Mousetrap lifts the lid on the brand and advertising strategies of leading companies who in a world redefined by digital media are setting the best traps for these ever quicker mice The Economist ,2003
