Systems We Have Loved Eve Meltzer, 2013-07-02 By the early 1960s theorists like L vi Strauss Lacan Foucault and Barthes had created a world ruled by signifying structures and pictured through the grids of language information and systems Artists soon followed turning to language and its related forms to devise a new conceptual approach to art making Examining the ways in which artists shared the structuralist devotion to systems of many sorts Systems We Have Loved shows that even as structuralism encouraged the advent of conceptual art it also raised intractable problems that artists were forced to confront Considering such notable art figures as Mary Kelly Robert Morris Robert Smithson and Rosalind Krauss Eve Meltzer argues that during this period the visual arts depicted and tested the far reaching claims about subjectivity espoused by theorists She offers a new way of framing two of the twentieth century s most transformative movements one artistic one expansively theoretical and she reveals their shared dream or nightmare of the world as a system of signs By endorsing this view Meltzer proposes these artists drew attention to the fictions and limitations of this dream even as they risked getting caught in the very systems they had adopted The first book to describe art s embrace of the world as an information system Systems We Have Loved breathes new life into the study of conceptual art

Each One Another Rachel Haidu, 2023-07-28 A consideration of how contemporary art can offer a deeper understanding of selfhood With Each One Another Rachel Haidu argues that contemporary art can teach us how to understand ourselves as selves how we come to feel oneness to sense our own interiority and to shift between the roles that connect us to strangers those close to us and past and future generations Haidu looks to intergenerational pairings of artists to consider how three aesthetic vehicles shape in painting characters in film and video and roles in dance allow us to grasp selfhood Better understandings of our selves she argues complement our thinking about identity and subjecthood She shows how Philip Guston's figurative works explore shapes descriptive capacities and their ability to investigate history while Amy Sillman's paintings allow us to rethink expressivity and oneness Analyzing a 2004 video by James Coleman Haidu explores how we enter characters through their interior monologues and she also looks at how a 2011 film by Steve McQueen positions a protagonist's refusal to speak as an argument for our right to silence In addition Haidu examines how Anne Teresa de Keersmaecker's distribution of roles across dancers invites us to appreciate formal structures that separate us from one another while Yvonne Rainer's choreography shows how such formal structures also bring us together Through these examples Each One Another reveals how artworks allow us to understand oneness interiority and how we become fluid agents in the world and it invites us to examine critically and forgivingly our attachments to selfhood

A Compendium of the Systems of Divine Truth Jacob Catlin, 1818 It's Not Personal Susan Best, 2021-06-17 How does something as potent and evocative as the body become a relatively neutral artistic material From the 1960s much body art and performance conformed to the anti expressive ethos of minimalism and conceptualism whilst still using the compelling human form But how is this strange mismatch of vigour and impersonality able to transform the body into an expressive medium for visual art Focusing on renowned artists such as Lygia Clark Marina Abramovic and Angelica Mesiti Susan Best examines how bodies are configured in late modern and contemporary art She identifies three main ways in which they are used as material and argues that these formulations allow for the exposure of pressing social and psychological issues In skilfully aligning this new typology for body art and performance with critical theory she raises questions pertaining to gender inter subjectivity relation and community that continue to dominate both our artistic and cultural conversation

Artist as Author Christa Noel Robbins, 2021-06-29 Introduction the artist as author The act painting The expressive fallacy Rhetorics of motives Self discipline Event as painting Conclusion gridlocked Into the Extreme Valerie Olson, 2018-05-22 The first book length in depth ethnography of U S human spaceflight What if outer space is not outside the human environment but rather defines it This is the unusual starting point of Valerie Olson's Into the Extreme revealing how outer space contributes to making what counts as the scope and scale of today's natural and social environments With unprecedented access to spaceflight worksites ranging from astronaut training programs to life science labs and architecture studios Olson examines how U S experts work within the solar system as the container of life and as a vast site for new forms of technical and political environmental control Olson's book shifts our attention from space's political geography to its political ecology showing how scientists physicians and engineers across North America collaborate to build the conceptual and nuts and bolts systems that connect Earth to a specifically ecosystemic cosmos This cosmos is being redefined as a competitive space for potential economic resources social relations and political strategies Showing how contemporary U S environmental power is bound up with the production of national technical and scientific access to outer space Into the Extreme brings important new insights to our understanding of modern environmental history and politics At a time when the boundaries of global ecologies and economies extend far below and above Earth's surface Olson's new analytic frameworks help us understand how varieties of outlying spaces are known made and organized as kinds of environments whether terrestrial or beyond

The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim, 2024-06-24 In The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim traces how racial capitalism and colonialism situated the rise of US museum collections and conceptual art forms Investigating historical legal and property claims she argues that regimes of expropriation rather than merit or good taste are responsible for popular ideas of formal innovation and artistic genius In doing so she details how Marcel Duchamp's canonization has more to do with his patron's donations to museums than it does the quality of Duchamp's work and uncovers the racialized and financialized logic behind the Archive of New Poetry's collecting practices Ranging from the conception of philanthropy devised by the robber barons of the late nineteenth century to ongoing digitization projects Kim provides a new history of contemporary art that accounts for the complicated entanglement of race capital and labor behind storied art institutions and artists Drawing on history theory and economics Kim challenges received notions of artistic success and talent and calls for a new vision of art beyond the cultural institution

The Recording Machine Joshua Shannon, 2017-07-11 A revealing look at the irrevocable change in art during the 1960s and its relationship to the modern culture of fact This refreshing and erudite book offers a new understanding of the transformation of photography and the visual arts around 1968 Author Joshua Shannon reveals an oddly stringent realism in the period tracing artists' rejection of essential truths in favor of surface appearances Dubbing this tendency factualism Shannon illuminates not only the Cold War's preoccupation with data but also the rise of a pervasive culture of fact Focusing on the United States and West Germany where photodocumentary traditions intersected with 1960s politics Shannon investigates a broad variety of art ranging from conceptual photography and earthworks to photorealist painting and abstraction He looks closely at art by Bernd and Hilla Becher Robert Bechtle Vija Celmins Douglas Huebler Gerhard Richter and others These artists explored fact's role as a modern paradigm for talking thinking and knowing Their art Shannon concludes helps to explain both the ambivalent anti-humanism of today's avant-garde art and our own culture of fact

Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic James Elkins, Harper Montgomery, 2013-08-20 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series and the seminars on which they are based brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fourth volume in the series Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic focuses on questions revolving around the concepts of the aesthetic the anti-aesthetic and the political The book is about the fact that now almost thirty years after Hal Foster defined the anti-aesthetic there is still no viable alternative to the dichotomy between aesthetics and anti or nonaesthetic art The impasse is made more difficult by the proliferation of identity politics and it is made less negotiable by the hegemony of anti-aesthetics in academic discourse on art The central question of this book is whether artists and academicians are free of this choice in practice in pedagogy and in theory The contributors are St phanie Benzaquen J M Bernstein Karen Busk Jepsen Luis Camnitzer Diarmuid Costello Joana Cunha Leal Angela Dimitrakaki Alexander Dumbadze T Brandon Evans Geng Youzhuang Boris Groys Be ta Hock Gordon Hughes Michael Kelly Grant Kester Meredith Kooi Cary Levine Sunil Manghani William Mazzarella Justin McKeown Andrew McNamara Eve Meltzer Nadja Millner Larsen Maria Filomena Molder Carrie Noland Gary Peters Aaron Richmond Lauren Ross Toni Ross Eva Sch rmann Gregory Sholette Noah Simblist Jon Simons Robert Storr Martin Sundberg Timotheus Vermeulen and Rebecca Zorach The ISIS Agreement Alan AtKisson,2012-04-27 This is the must have book for leaders in business organizations and government who are scrambling to get a grip on sustainability while improving performance in the era of climate change Renowned business and sustainability consultant Alan AtKisson distils decades of wisdom and experience into this highly readable and motivational work Covering theory and practice obstacles and opportunities case studies and poignant personal anecdotes The ISIS Agreement draws the reader ever deeper into a global conspiracy of hope The core of the book is AtKisson s potent Accelerator adopted for use in dozens of countries by business governments and organizations such as UNEP A comprehensive toolkit that helps integrate sustainability into organizations initiatives and plans it can be used by any group organization business community or region in virtually any context Central to the Accelerator is the potent ISIS Indicators Systems Innovation Strategy method that teaches leaders how to create a whole systems view of their organization to identify and understand blockages and opportunities and to leverage the potential for innovative change that adds value and accelerates progress towards sustainability The Sustainability Transformation Alan AtKisson,2012-06-25 The Sustainability Transformation is a must read for anyone trying to make sense of what is happening to our world and wanting to change it for the better Renowned consultant and communicator Alan AtKisson author of the sustainability classic Believing Cassandra cuts through the jargon and illuminates the essentials in this highly readable and motivational work The Sustainability Transformation covers theory and practice tools and strategies the opportunities and the obstacles illustrated with in depth case studies and poignant personal anecdotes AtKisson s aim is to empower the reader and to help grow a global army of change agents working effectively to overcome the great challenges of our times At the heart of the book is AtKisson s potent ISIS Method used by business governments and organizations around the world ISIS Indicators Systems Innovation Strategy helps professionals students and amateurs alike to put sustainability to work and accelerate change even when facing difficult circumstances AtKisson also introduces the reader to many inspiring people unsung heroes whose success stories provide a solid foundation for hope Previously published in hardcover as The ISIS Agreement Implementing CRM David Finnegan,Leslie P. Johanna Gosse, Timothy Stott, 2021-11-02 The contributors to Nervous Systems reassess contemporary artists and critics engagement with social political biological and other systems as a set of complex and relational parts an approach commonly known as systems thinking Demonstrating the continuing relevance of systems aesthetics within contemporary art the contributors highlight the ways that artists adopt systems thinking to address political social and ecological anxieties They cover a wide range of artists and topics from the performances of the Argentinian collective the Rosario Group and the grid drawings of Charles Gaines to the video art of Singaporean artist Charles Lim and the mapping of global logistics infrastructures by contemporary artists like Hito Steyerl and Christoph B chel Together the essays offer an expanded understanding of systems aesthetics in ways that affirm its importance beyond technological applications detached from cultural contexts Contributors Cristina Albu Amanda Boetzkes Brianne Cohen Kris Cohen Jaimey Hamilton Faris Christine Filippone Johanna Gosse Francis Halsall Judith Rodenbeck Dawna Schuld Luke Skrebowski Timothy Stott John Tyson to 9 and the New York Avant-Garde Ross Hair, 2025-09-08 Edited and self published by Bernadette Mayer and Vito Acconci from 1967 to 1969 0 to 9 not only documented some of the most compelling examples of intermedia performance contemporary poetry and post formalist art of the period but also pioneered new ways of conceiving and using the magazine as medium and instrument 0 to 9 and the New York Avant Garde Publishing by Numbers examines how the magazine both responded to and helped shape key developments in New York's often fractious avant garde communities. The book pays particular attention to the ways in which Mayer and Acconci foregrounded the material and generic qualities of the magazine and conceived their periodical as a means of generating as well as documenting art and poetry 0 to 9 and the New York Avant Garde considers the ways in which 0 to 9 interacted with other artistic movements and theoretical concerns of the period including cybernetics, Pop Art, structuralism and information theory. Arguing for the enduring importance of the magazine and its unique position in the history of New York's experimental art and literary scenes, this study contends that 0 to 9 was both a swan song of 1960s idealism and a precursor for the directions that avant garde art would take in the decades that followed the magazine's demise.
