DAS TAGEBUCH DER ANNE FRANK

14. Juni 1942 — 1. August 1944

»Het Achterhuis« — Im Hinterhaus, so lautet der Originaltitel dieses in Holland schon in fünfter Auflage erschienenen Werkes. Ein Kind hat zwischen seinem 13. und 15. Lebensjahr dieses erstaunliche Tagebuch geschrieben, das durch seine Frische und Lebendigkeit überrascht. Anne ist im März 1945 im Lager Bergen-Belsen gestorben, zwei Monate vor der Befreiung Hollands. Acht Monate Haft — Einsamkeit und Angst — haben dieses feinfühliges Wesen zerstört, dessen eigenwillige Intelligenz so überraschend aus den Aufzeichnungen spricht. Es ist der Triumph des Lebens, der Natur, der Freiheit gegen unmenschliche Lebensbedingungen. Anne Frank sagt alles, das heimste und das Unmittelbarste, was ihr Lachen und was ihre unermessliche Zärtlichkeit erregt. Es genügt ihr, nachts ein Fenster aufzustoßen, um den vertrauten Zusammenhang mit den Dingen wiederzufinden, den Sang des Lebens, die uralte Harmonie des Seins. (Jacques de Lapadre in »Arts«)

World History as the History of Foundations, 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte,2019-10-29 In World History as the History of Foundations 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte investigates the origins and development of foundations from Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages In his survey foundations emerge not as mere legal institutions but rather as total social phenomena which touch upon manifold aspects including politics the economy art and religion of the cultures in which they emerged Cross cultural in its approach and the result of decades of research this work represents by far the most comprehensive account of the history of foundations that has hitherto been published Japanese and Western Literature Armando Martins Janeira,2016-08-09 Japanese and Western Literature delves deeply into Japanese culture to discover the concepts that similarize and differentiate Japanese and Western literary creations Paralleling Japanese literary creations and fundamental thought with those of the West the author draws many illuminating comparisons for example between the novels of Murasaki Shikibu and Marcel Proust between the Portuguese poet Torga and the haiku master Issa and between the picaresque novel in Japan and in the West Contrastive studies are also made into such concepts as time nature love and tragedy This broad yet incisive survey of Japanese literarily genres and themes is more than a comparative study of literature however it is an attempt to grasp the core of Japanese culture by setting it against world culture From this born a complex of new ideas and problems and author is able to probe the extent of Western influence on Japanese fiction poetry and essays in the past hundred years Life of James Boswell (of Auchinleck) Percy Fitzgerald,1891 Muslim Studies George McCue,2017-07-05 This is the first volume of Goldziher s Muslim Studies which ranks highly among the classics of the scholarly literature on Islam Indeed the two volumes originally published in German in 1889 1890 can justly be counted among those that laid the foundations of the modern study of Islam as a religion and a civilization The first study deals with the reaction of Islam to the ideals of Arab tribal society to the attitudes of early Islam to the various nationalities and more especially the Persians and culminates in the chapter on the Shu ubiya movement which represents the reaction of the newly converted peoples and again more especially the Persians to the idea of Arab superiority The second essay is the famous study on the development of the Hadith the Traditions ascribed to Muhammed in which the Hadith is shown to reflect the various trends of early Islam Goldziher s name is mainly associated with the critical study of the Hadith of which this essay is the chief monument The third essay is about the cult of saints which though contrary to the spirit and letter of the earliest Islam played such an important part in its subsequent development These essays with the author s marvelous richness of information profound historical sense and sympathetic insight into the motive forces of religion and civilization are today as fresh as at the time of their original publication and their reissue is indispensable for the growing number of students of Islam Hamid Dabashi contributes a major eighty five page study of Goldziher's life and scholarship situating both in the intellectual and political currents of his own time while evaluating his work in the context of the current debate over Orientalism

Reading Mennonite Writing Robert Zacharias, 2022-05-12 Mennonite literature has long been viewed as an expression of community identity However scholars in Mennonite literary studies have urged a reconsideration of the field's past and a reconceptualization of its future This is exactly what Reading Mennonite Writing does Drawing on the transnational turn in literary studies Robert Zacharias positions Mennonite literature in North America as a mode of circulation and reading rather than an expression of a distinct community He tests this reframing with a series of methodological experiments that open new avenues of critical engagement with the field's unique configuration of faith based intercultural difference These include cross sectional readings in nonnarrative literary history archival readings of transatlantic life writing Canadian rewritings of Mexican film's deployment of Mennonite theology as fantasy an examination of the fetishistic structure of ethnicity as a thing that has enabled Mennonite identity to function in a post identity age and finally a tentative reinvestment in ideals of Mennonite community via the surprising routes of queerness and speculative fiction In so doing Zacharias reads Mennonite writing in North America as a useful case study in the shifting position of minor literatures in the wake of the transnational turn Theoretically sophisticated this study of minor transnationalism will appeal to specialists in Mennonite literature and to scholars working in the broader field of transnational literary studies

Marginal Voices, Marginal Forms, 2023-11-27 Diaristic writing has often been relegated to the fringes of literary studies as a marginal cultural activity This volume seeks to challenge that marginality by exploring some of the wide ranging forms of literary practice encompassed by diaristic writing in Europe from the Renaissance to the present day The volume deals with questions of the value and status of the diary of the functioning of the diary in society and history and of the reception and interpretation of the multifarious forms of first person daily writing The volume investigates diaries across national borders and linguistic boundaries so as to make the hitherto marginal place of the private journal a site of fruitful interdisciplinary encounters Australian British Catalanian French German and Italian critics examine diaries dating from the sixteenth to the twentieth century within the context of the literature history and literary history of Catalonia England France Germany and Italy A prime concern of the essays in this collection is to highlight the cultural generic and historical diversity of the diary while emphasising the points of convergence between different texts and differing critical approaches to the texts The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of European and comparative literature
