Elihu Root Collection of United States Documents Relating to the Philippine Islands, 1905 MacMillan's Magazine Sir George Grove, David Masson, John Morley, Mowbray Morris, 1868 Proceedings of the Alaskan Boundary Tribunal Alaskan Boundary Tribunal, 1904 Annual Reports of the War Department United States. War Department, 1905

Lectures on ancient history, from the earliest times to the taking of Alexandria by Octavianus, tr. from the Germ. ed. of M. Niebuhr, by L. Schmitz, with additions and corrections from his own MS. notes Barthold Georg Niebuhr, 1852 The Invention of Custom Francesca Iurlaro, 2021-12-23 The concept of customary international law although differently formulated is already present in early modern European debates on natural law and the law of nations However no scholarly monograph has until now addressed the relationship between custom and the European natural law and ius gentium tradition This book tells that neglected story and offers a solid conceptual framework to contextualize and understand the problematic of custom namely how to identify its normative content Natural law doctrines and the different ways in which they help construct human reason provided custom with such normative content This normative content consists of a set of fundamental moral values that help identify the status of custom as either a fundamental feature or an original source of ius gentium This book explores what cultural values and practices facilitated the emergence of custom and rendered it into as a source of the law of nations and how they did so Two crucial issues form the core of the book s analysis Firstly it qualifies the nature of the interrelation between natural law and ius gentium explaining why it matters in relation to our understanding of the idea of custom Second the book claims that the process of custom formation as a source of law calls into question the role of the authority of history The interpretation of the past through this approach can thus be described as one of invention

Taking an Honest and Spiritual Inventory Participant's Guide 2 John Baker, 2016-06-14 The Celebrate Recovery Participant s Guides are essential tools for the personal recovery journey In the five lessons in Guide 2 Taking an Honest and Spiritual Inventory you will experience an in depth look at the 4th principle in the recovery process 4 Openly examine and confess my faults to God to myself and to someone I trust Happy are the pure in heart Matthew 5 8 By working through the lessons and exercises found in each of the four Participant s Guides you will begin to experience the true peace and serenity you have been seeking restore and develop stronger relationships with others and with God and find freedom from life s hurts hang ups and habits All the scriptures have been updated to the new NIV 2011 version Taking Pluralism Seriously Félix Mathieu, 2022-06-15 In so called post factual societies where public debates are undermined by their false or misleading premises philosophers who have reflected on diversity and pluralism can offer a critical and clarifying perspective through which to evaluate the statements of politicians and the media F lix Mathieu offers a theoretical empirical and normative analysis of the debates surrounding the accommodation of ethnocultural and societal diversity in contemporary liberal democracies With a close lens on Canada he looks at case studies in the United Kingdom and the Netherlands to test political leaders and analysts claims of successful accommodation and pluralism Taking Pluralism Seriously provides a clear fair and helpful summary of the debate so far in order to understand the promises and pitfalls associated with theories of multiculturalism interculturalism federalism and multinational democracy investigating the conditions that might make it possible for different national communities to become fully empowered politically and culturally Taking Pluralism Seriously invites readers to explore questions of pluralism and accommodation and proposes political reforms to meet the challenges arising from diversity while considering some of the most pressing concerns complex societies are facing today Report of the Philippine Commission to the Secretary of War ...
