

The background of the poster is a photograph of a street scene in a European city, likely Sicily, during the 'blue hour' or sunset. The sky is a deep orange and yellow, with the sun low on the horizon. The street is lined with multi-story buildings that have a mix of architectural styles, including arched windows and balconies. A few streetlights are visible, and the overall atmosphere is warm and slightly somber. The title text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

Uniform Justice Donna Leon, 2007-12-01 A wall of silence surrounds a cadet's death at an elite military academy Superb This is an outstanding book Publishers Weekly Detective Commissario Guido Brunetti has been called to investigate a parent's worst nightmare A young cadet has been found hanged a presumed suicide in Venice's elite military academy Brunetti's sorrow for the boy so close in age to his own son is rivaled only by his contempt for a community that is more concerned with protecting the reputation of the school and its privileged students than understanding this tragedy The young man is the son of a doctor and former politician a man of impeccable integrity all too rare in politics Dr Moro is clearly devastated but while both he and his apparently estranged wife seem convinced that the boy's death could not have been suicide neither appears eager to talk to the police or involve Brunetti in any investigation of the circumstances in which he died As Brunetti pursues his inquiry he is faced with a wall of silence Is the military protecting its own And what of the other witnesses Is this the natural reluctance of Italians to involve themselves with the authorities or is Brunetti facing a conspiracy far greater than this one death Brunetti is a compelling character a good man trying to stay on the honest path in a devious and twisted world The Baltimore Sun Uniform Justice - Book 12 - Guido Brunetti Donna Leon, 2003 Neither Commissario Brunetti nor his wife Paola have ever had much sympathy for the Italian armed forces so when a young cadet is found hanged at Venice's elite military academy Brunetti's emotions are complex pity and sorrow at the death of a boy close in age to his own son and contempt and irritation for the arrogance and high handedness of the boy's teachers and fellow students The young man is the son of an ex politician a man of an impeccable integrity all too rare in Italian politics But as Brunetti and the indispensable Signorina Elettra investigate further no one seems willing to talk as the military protects its own and civilians keep their own counsel Is this the natural reluctance of Italians to involve themselves with the authorities or is Brunetti facing a conspiracy of silence
