A Love Letter in Cuneiform Tomáš Zmeškal,2016-03-21 Set in Czechoslovakia between the 1940s and the 1990s Tom Zmeškal s stimulating novel focuses on one family s tragic story of love and the unspoken Josef meets his wife Kveta before the Second World War at a public lecture on Hittite culture Kveta chooses to marry Josef over their mutual friend Hynek but when her husband is later arrested and imprisoned for an unnamed crime Kveta gives herself to Hynek in return for help and advice The author explores the complexities of what is not spoken what cannot be said the repercussions of silence after an ordeal the absurdity of forgotten pain and what it is to be an outsider In Zmeškal s tale told not chronologically but rather as a mosaic of events time progresses unevenly and unpredictably as does one s understanding The saga belongs to a particular family but it also exposes the larger ongoing struggle of postcommunist Eastern Europe to come to terms with suffering when catharsis is denied Reporting from a fresh multicultural perspective Zmeškal makes a welcome contribution to European literature in the twenty first century

Imagined Histories Anthony Molho,Gordon S. Wood,2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book

Practical Work in School Science Jerry Wellington, 2002-01-22 Practical work has been part of science education for just over 100 years and is accepted as an essential and exciting part of understanding this discipline Although it can be costly and sometimes messy it simply has to be done if students and teachers are to progress in their understanding Schools and universities invest millions of pounds in it and the National Curriculum reveres it but what exactly is going on in classrooms around the country and how are the leading practitioners moving with the times This book attempts to reflect on the value and purpose of practical work as part of the scientific curriculum Why are practical exercises so necessary and what do they contribute to the learning process The chapters examine many issues such as how practical work is perceived by students and teachers whether we will move on to the virtual lab the limitations of current hands on work and valuable alternatives to it the connections between practical work in science education and authentic science what role experimentation plays in current educational practice Jerry Wellington is Reader in Education at Sheffield University and has taught science at all academic levels The Pacific Coast Musician ,1922 British Medical Journal ,1927 Music was not Enough Bob
