Teaching with Books that Heal Patricia L. Kolencik,Carianne Bernadowski,2007-05-31 Help children learn coping skills through literature This book answers the often repeated question

Is there a children's book I can read in my classroom to give children insight into significant life events? Literature ideas and activities help students cope with real life situations such as bullying that interfere with school. This book will assist educators in guiding and nurturing children's special issues and concerns with outstanding ready-to-go reading and writing lessons. This professional resource for K-6 educators and parents uses literature with identifiable characters to help children who are facing challenges in their lives. Like bullying, peer acceptance, peer pressure, and being different, as well as family situations such as death, divorce, adoption, and sibling rivalry. Using AI to Power Primary Literacy Adam Bushnell, 2025-09-30

Artificial intelligence (AI) is transforming the world around us, and education is no exception. But how can AI help in the primary classroom, particularly with teaching reading, writing, and comprehension? This practical guide demystifies AI for teachers, offering clear, accessible, and practical strategies to enhance literacy teaching in a way that is both effective and engaging. Written specifically for primary school teachers, this book explores how AI-powered tools can support children's literacy development. It provides step-by-step guidance on using AI to enrich reading activities, improve comprehension skills, inspire creative writing, make poetry analysis and writing easier, and make non-fiction research more engaging. The book is packed with real-world, tried and tested examples, with easy-to-follow lesson ideas and thoughtful discussion points to help teachers integrate AI into their teaching while maintaining the human connection that is central to learning. This practical resource is for anyone looking for innovative ways to engage young learners with their reading and writing. It is particularly relevant for teachers and school leaders and offers hands-on support on how to use AI ethically and effectively in the classroom, whilst also suggesting ways to enhance learning and pupil engagement within an ever-evolving educational landscape. Creating Art for All Ages Frances Flicker, Jeanne Richins, Jacqueline G. Van Schooneveld, 2019-11-22

This is book two of a series of three books. The series takes students on an interdisciplinary cross-content journey entitled Creating Art Through the Ages. Each book provides experiences in language arts, social studies, math, and art as the students investigate ancient and modern civilizations. Discovery and Knowledge explores the ancient Roman civilization, the Middle Ages, and Renaissance. Explorers set sail to discover land, treasures, raw materials, and knowledge on behalf of their mother country and religion. The development of the printing press enabled the disbursement of knowledge through books. Discovery and the pursuit of knowledge is the underlying theme during this era. In this book, it is reimagined for students with experiences through stories, interactive role-playing activities, and art projects. ChatGPT for Nonfiction Authors: The Step-by-Step 5-Day Roadmap to Drafting, Editing & Launching with AI Writing Tools (Includes 100+ Prompts) ROAJER GILBERT, 2025-01-26.
