The Islamic World In The New Century:

The Organization of Islamic Cooperation Turan Kayaoglu, 2015-05-22 The Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC is the world's leading international Islamic organization Turan Kayaoglu provides the first accessible and concise introduction and overview of this important organization This book details the OIC's struggle to address popular Muslim demands balanced against the member states' reluctance to support the OIC politically and materially Despite this predicament the organization has made itself increasingly relevant over the last decade through increasing its visibility as the representative body of Muslim unity and promoting its role as a reliable interlocutor on behalf of Muslims in global society Outlining the history workings and goals of the OIC the book also highlights key issues that may influence the OIC's ability to realize its potential in the future This will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations international organizations and Islamic studies

Politics and Religion in the New Century Philip Andrew Quadrio, Carrol Besseling, 2009-11-16 Politics and Religion in the New Century contains a collection of philosophical reflections on the intersection of religion and the political in contemporary social political and intellectual life

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present Francis Robinson a leading historian of Islam has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years As their articles reveal the social economic political and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have in many different parts of the world empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged Synthesising the academic research of the past thirty years as well as offering substantial guidance for further study this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies

Liberalism for a New Century Neil Jumonville, Kevin Mattson, 2007-06-04 American liberalism today is in a state of confusion and disarray with the L word widely considered a term of derision By examining both the historical past and the fractious present Liberalism for a New Century restores a proud political tradition and carves out a formidable defense of its philosophical tenets This manifesto for a New Liberalism issues an urgent and cogent call for the most important rethinking of its values since the late 1960s when conservatives reenergized themselves after Barry Goldwater's infamous loss The essays in this volume most of them never before published are written by a leading group of historians journalists and public intellectuals Some of the nation's most highly respected liberal minds explore such topics as the classical liberal tradition postmodernism's challenge to the American Enlightenment the civil rights era the influence of twentieth century radicals on American liberalism the 1950s tolerance the cold war and whether liberalism should have a large and aggressive vision One essay considers liberalism in Iran and what American liberals might learn from this movement Fast paced and encompassing such hot button issues as the family and religion here are ringside seat arguments between people who don't often get to engage with one another right leaning liberals like Peter Berkowitz and John Patrick Diggins and leftier liberals like Michael Tomasky and Mona Harrington The result is a lively and stimulating collection that articulates a clear minded alternative to the conservative ascendancy in American history and offers a timely and essential contribution to the growing national debate

New Century War Jeremy Black,2003-03-01 War is a subject of universal interest that continues to haunt our future as much as it has disfigured our past Since the Gulf War public discourse in the West on the future of war has often seemed intoxicated by the new military technology and the prospect of a new paradigm of warfare as an instrument of global governance quick low risk low casualty conflict that serves the interests of a world community In this timely and compelling book Jeremy Black examines the global contexts of war In place of an over sanguine estimate of the effectiveness of force backed Western mediation he dispassionately assesses the present and likely future role of war in shaping the world order He explores key themes such as changing gender relationships religion and identity the continuing rise of China as a competing world power with the USA and rogue states

A Modern History of the Islamic World Reinhard Schulze,2002-03 Considering the Islamic world from Morocco to Indonesia Somalia and Bosnia Schulze Islamic studies U of Berne charts their histories during the 20th century Rather than taking each one in turn he narrates chronologically the political changes throughout the world where Islam is the dominant cultural force He begins with the impact of colonialism and ends with struggle between Islamic culture and civil society in the 1990s He includes several maps Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Globalization and the Challenges of a New Century Patrick O'Meara,Howard D. Mehlinger,Matthew Krain,Roxana Ma Newman,2000-06-22 If you want to catch up on some of the best articles written about globalisation since the topic became fashionable several years ago this reader is the place to start The Economist A blue ribbon collection of major articles and position papers on the concept of globalization By bringing together a number of major thinkers and different perspectives this book provides a broad introduction to the topic and lays the groundwork for an interdisciplinary collaborative dialogue Contributors include Kofi Annan Benjamin Barber Francis Fukuyama Samuel Huntington Robert Kaplan Paul Kennedy Walter Lacqueur Bill McKibben Lester Thurow and Jeffrey Sachs

Sociology for a New Century York William Bradshaw,Joseph F. Healey,Rebecca Smith,2001-03-08 Written with the conviction that sociology can play a major role perhaps THE major role in helping college students understand how their lives are shaped by the complexities of global social forces in our new century Helps students develop an approach to thinking about social issues and evaluating claims and arguments that they can use long after the course has ended Reflects the following qualities from the sociological tradition a commitment to the principles of scientific investigation a deep concern for social issues and human welfare and a macro approach that takes account of history geography and relations between the societies and regions of the globe Strives less to introduce sociology and more to demonstrate the power and value of thinking sociologically about societies today Centers on a small number of organizing themes and principles introduced in Chapter 1 and used throughout the remainder of the text see detailed table of contents Contains 16 chapters and 7 topical essays interspersed between Chapters 1 10 The first 10 chapters are the core foundation of the text Chapters 11 15 apply sociological thinking to a series of significant global issues including war work health and population growth Chapter 16 brings the text to a close with a discussion of how individuals and organizations can create positive change in the world Written to help teach the process of investigation the sociological craft of research critical thinking and careful analysis Rather than presenting students with answers the core Chapters 1 10 are each organized around a specific question or problem selected for its interest to students as well as its importance to the U S and the world see table of contents Thus sociological terms and concepts are introduced as they become relevant to the analysis never for their own sake The Topical Essays broaden the coverage of issues and diversity of viewpoints in the text while the book maintains its overall thematic coherence Most essays are written by leading scholars and researchers in sociology save one essayist who is an undergraduate student Tracey Dawson and one a cartoonist Nick Rutter who has illustrated Gay Seidman s essay on Sweatshops and Chapters 11 16 Active Learning Exercises extend and reinforce the emphasis on critical thinking throughout the book A Web Site specifically devoted to Sociology For a New Century provides many helpful ways students can strengthen their ability to think and see sociologically A Sociological Atlas in the back of the book provides 32 four color maps of global sociological information as well as a wealth of web sites and other information resources Graphical Displays of Social Data and informative Photographs and Cartoons throughout the chapters make learning easier and more fun Teaching Resources available upon adoption of the text contains an excellent set of various tests and an annotated set of literary and visual resources in addition to an annotated bibliography of teaching resource materials

Journals of the Century Tony Stankus, 2019-12-06 This book first published in 2002 gathers some of America's top subject expert librarians to determine the most influential journals in their respective fields 32 contributing authors reviewed journals from over twenty countries that have successfully shaped the evolution of their individual specialties worldwide Their choices reflect the history of each discipline or profession taking into account rivalries between universities professional societies for profit and not for profit publishers and even nation states and international ideologies in each journal's quest for reputational dominance Each journal was judged using criteria such as longevity of publication foresight in carving out its niche ability to attract none are in the employ of any publisher but each is fully credentialed and well published and many are award winners The authors guide college and professional school librarians on limited budgets via an exposition of their analytical and critical winnowing process in determining the classic resources for their faculty students and working professional clientele The Organization of Islamic Cooperation and Human Rights Marie Juul

Petersen, Turan Kayaoglu, 2019-07-12 Established in 1969 the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC is an intergovernmental organization the purpose of which is the strengthening of solidarity among Muslims Headquartered in Jeddah the OIC today consists of fifty seven states from the Middle East Asia Africa and Latin America The OIC's longevity and geographic reach combined with its self proclaimed role as the United Nations of the Muslim world raise certain expectations as to its role in global human rights politics However to date these hopes have been unfulfilled The Organization of Islamic Cooperation and Human Rights sets out to demonstrate the potential and shortcomings of the OIC and the obstacles on the paths it has navigated Historically the OIC has had a complicated relationship with the international human rights regime Palestinian self determination was an important catalyst for the founding of the OIC but the OIC did not develop a comprehensive human rights approach in its first decades In fact human rights issues were rarely if at all mentioned at the organization's summits or annual conferences of foreign ministers Instead the OIC tended to focus on protecting Islamic holy sites and strengthening economic cooperation among member states As other international and regional organizations expanded the international human rights system in the 1990s the OIC began to pay greater attention to human rights although not always in a manner that aligned with Western conceptions This volume provides essential empirical and theoretical insights into OIC practices contemporary challenges to human rights intergovernmental organizations and global Islam Essays by some of the world s leading scholars examine the OIC s human rights activities at different levels in the UN the organization s own institutions and at the member state level and assess different aspects of the OIC s approach identifying priority areas of involvement and underlying conceptions of human rights Contributors Hirah Azhar Mashood A Baderin Anthony Tirado Chase Ioana Cismas Moataz El Feghiery Turan Kayaoglu Martin Lestra Ann Elizabeth Mayer Mahmood Monshipouri Marie Juul Petersen Zeynep ahin Menc tek Hein Skorini M Evren Tok The Islamic World Andrew Rippin,2013-10-23 The Islamic World is an outstanding guide to Islamic faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished international team of scholars it elucidates the history philosophy and practice of one of the world s great religious traditions Its grounding in contemporary scholarship makes it an ideal reference source for students and scholars alike Edited by Andrew Rippin a leading scholar of Islam the volume covers the political geographical religious intellectual cultural and social worlds of Islam and offers insight into all aspects of Muslim life including the Qur an and law philosophy science and technology art literature and film and much else It explores the concept of an Islamic world what makes it distinctive and how uniform is that distinctiveness across Muslim geographical regions and through history Religion, State and the United Nations Anne Stensvold,2016-07-22 This volume approaches the UN as a laboratory of religio political value politics Over the last two decades religion has acquired increasing influence in international politics and religious violence and terrorism has attracted much scholarly attention But there is another parallel development which has gone largely unnoticed namely the increasing political impact of peaceful religious actors With several religious actors in one place and interacting under the same conditions the UN is as a multi religious society writ small The contributors to this book analyse the most influential religious actors at the UN including The Roman Catholic Church The Organisation of Islamic Countries the Russian Orthodox Church Mapping the peaceful political engagements of religious actors who they are and how they collaborate with each other whether on an ad hoc basis or by forming more permanent networks throwing light at the modus operandi of religious actors at the UN their strategies and motivations The chapters are closely interrelated through the shared focus on the UN and common theoretical perspectives and pursue two intertwined aspects of religious value politics namely the whys and hows of cross religious cooperation on the one hand and the interaction between religious actors and states on the other Drawing together a broad range of experts on religious actors this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of Religion and Politics International Relations and the UN International Organizations and The Rise of ISIL Daniel Silander,Don Wallace,John Janzekovic,2016-07-15 This book seeks to understand the obligations of the international community to promote and protect state and human security in situations of international humanitarian crises In Iraq and Syria as well as in neighbouring states the rise of ISIL has raised serious state and human security challenges This study explores the relationships between the Global Regional Partnership the United Nations and nine organizations in their attempt to deal with the challenges presented by ISIL Each organization is analyzed in terms of how it has responded in the past and how it is now responding to the ISIL threat based on three perspectives resource capacities military political economic technological normative willingness and readiness and impediments to capacity and abilities The overall aim is to discern what capacities and abilities international organizations have to protect state and human security and prevent civilians from mass atrocities inflicted by ISIL forces The study addresses the role of international organizations when the UNSC is unable or unwilling to uphold the most fundamental norms and values in the UN Charter This approach acknowledges that within the international community there is an overall acceptance on security for a partnership between the UN and regional organizations but that there is also a contested call for a renegotiated international contract on state and human security This volume will be of much interest to students of international relations human rights peace and conflict studies terrorism studies and International Relations

Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Esposito, John Voll, Osman Bakar, 2008 Asian Islam in the 21st century is divided into two sections religion politics and society in major Muslim majority countries and ethnic and religious politics in Muslim minority communities Muslims in Asia are affected by what is happening in the Arab Middle East and the Western part of the Islamic world

Regulation of Speech in Multicultural Societies Marcel Maussen, Ralph Grillo, 2017-10-02 This book focuses on the way in which public debate and legal practice intersect when it comes to the value of free speech and the need to regulate offensive blasphemous or hate speech especially though not exclusively where such speech is thought to be offensive to members of ethnic and religious minorities The themes addressed are of great significance for contemporary societies in many parts of the world including Europe and North America and although the volume focuses principally on the European context it also addresses the theme on an international level Contributions look at the transnational intertextuality of the debate as well as comparing approaches to regulation in different countries notably between the European Court of Human Rights and the United States Supreme Court This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Transformation of the Muslim World in the 21st Century Muhammed Hüseyin Mercan, 2016-03-08 In addition to the important breaking points of the last century such as the abolition of the Caliphate the World Wars the Cold War the collapse of the Soviet Union the Iranian Revolution and the foundation of a New World Order which directly affected Muslim societies the new conjuncture formed in the wake of the 9 11 attacks brought about various structural problems and changes in the Muslim world Political and economic developments in the last ten years in particular have brought many Muslim countries to the edge of crisis Along with political economic and social issues the fact that modernisation and secularisation have become dominant in Muslim societies shows that the outcomes of these changes are of great importance In this respect this book offers a significant contribution to debates on the processes of change and transformation in the Muslim world In addition to theoretical debates the main dynamics of political and social change in Muslim societies are discussed here using specific examples from each country As such this volume will provide the reader with a practical understanding of the historical turning points in the Muslim world over recent years

The Root Causes of Terrorism Mahmoud Masaeli, Rico Sneller, 2017-01-06 Fifteen years after the tragic events of 9 11 bombs are still exploding and innocent people are being killed by terrorist groups in both western and Islamic societies Most of these sinisterly threatening events are motivated by religious claims or are taking place in religiously affected places Is religion the main cause of terrorism or does terrorism still arise because of leaders who brainwash and coach future terrorists so that they kill under the banner of religion The religious imagination seems to hold here an influential power in the creation of delusion to orient the bigot believers toward fulfilling their religious duty against those who are religious in a different way or are not religious at all Religion in this sense is tightly allied with political aspirations In spite of the religious justification of the act of killing enlightened religious leaders and religious minded people believe and argue that religion is a source of love and affection Therefore the sacred texts of religious tradition must be read from a humanist perspective because the ultimate message of religion is about the appreciation of the principle of humanity This is a growing attitude among many religious people today who believe that God is merciful and compassionate and never orders resentment violence and killing of innocent people In addition no true religious tradition appreciates self serving interpretations promoting violence against others If religion disregards love affection and compassion as its essence it drops into the dire vortex of ideological dogma as it is in the case for the Taliban ISIS Boko Haram and Al Shabab Therefore any interpretation that admits violence and killing would be a mere provincial reading of the religious texts agitated by purposeful intentions aimed at political goals This book investigates and addresses the root causes of terrorism from a religious studies perspective The themes analysed and discussed here mainly include a range of religious and philosophical issues such as religious violence in scriptural monotheism radical interpretations of religious texts militancy and sacrifice apocalypticism and terrorism and religious terrorism today The book brings together new approaches adopted by the authors to not only trace the causes of terrorism in various religious interpretations and realms but also reach a common definition of the main religious causes beyond diverse perspectives and advance solutions against religious inspired terrorism
