Woodruff,2018-12-31 The Judges as they appear in the book of Judges and the prophets are those listed in the prophets of the Old Testament who have a book named for them This does leave out Abraham Moses Elijah and Elisha They all deserve a separate work but I have appended a brief description of Elijah and Elisha to the end The kings of course start with Saul David and Solomon We will then branch into what could be called the sundered kingdoms of Israel and Judah Each of these is listed separately according to their individual responsibilities This then becomes a simple study of the men and women who in the course of Old Testament history served God in a special position This of course is to say that some served very well and some served badly The author hopes that you will enjoy this study of the book
