Selected Poems Federico García Lorca, 2007 Federico Garcia Lorca is perhaps the most celebrated of all twentieth century Spanish writers known not only for his plays but also for several collections of poems published both in his short lifetime and after Lorca s poetry is steeped in the land climate and folklore of his native Andalusia though he writes memorably of New York and Cuba too Writing often in modernist idiom and full of startling imagery he evokes a world of intense feelings silent suffering and dangerous love This unique parallel text edition balances poems from Lorca's early collections with his better known later work providing a clear vision of his poetic development and drawing attention to the brilliance and originality of some of the earlier work. Key poems from all Lorca's collections appear here including the recently discovered Sonnets of Dark Love. Martin Sorrell's translations are thoughtful and accomplished and D Gareth Walters's shrewd Introduction with its distinctive focus on the achievements of the poet gives a clear and balanced appraisal of the poetry while steering away from the tendency to mythologize Lorca's life and death. This edition also includes helpful notes, a bibliography, a chronology and an index of titles.

Blueprints of the Afterlife Ryan Boudinot, 2018-09-01 A tour de force novel from the wickedly talented The Boston Globe and darkly funny author of Misconception. The New York Times Book Review Finalist for the Philip K Dick Award. It is the afterlife. The end of the world is a distant, distorted memory called the Age of Fucked Up Shit. A sentient glacier has wiped out most of North America. Medical care is supplied by open source nanotechnology and human nervous systems can be hacked. Abby Fogg is a film archivist with a nagging feeling that her life is not really her own. She may be right. Al Skinner is a former mercenary for the Boeing Army who's been dragging his war baggage behind him for nearly a century. Woo jin Kan is a virtuoso dishwasher with the Restaurant and Hotel Management Olympic medals to prove it. Over them all hovers a mysterious man named Dirk Bickle who sends all these characters to a full scale replica of Manhattan under construction in Puget Sound. An ambitious novel that writes large the hopes and anxieties of our time: climate change, social strife, the depersonalization of the digital age. Blueprints of the Afterlife will establish Ryan Boudinot as an exceptional novelist of great daring. Duct tape yourself to the front of this roller coaster and enjoy the ride. The New York Times Challenging messy and funny fiction for readers looking for something way beyond space operas and swordplay. Kirkus Reviews The absurdities are cleverly crafted and highly entertaining. Imaginative and heartfelt. Hannah Calkins Shelf Awareness Ingenious. Frenzied, hilarious and paranoid. A bracing dystopian romp through contemporary dread. Publishers Weekly Probably the strangest post apocalyptic novel in ages. io9 What an inspired mindfuck of a book. City Paper Baltimore A Longing for the Light Vicente Aleixandre, 1979

Common Trees of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands Elbert Luther Little, Frank Howard Wadsworth, 1964 Fountain of Life Havelock Ellis, 1924 Transfigurations Jay Wright, 2000 Few poets have as much to tell us about the intricate relationship between the African American past and present as Jay Wright. His poems weave a rich fabric of personal history using diverse materials drawn from African, Native American and European sources. Scholarly, historical, intuitive and emotional, his work explores territories in which rituals of psychological and spiritual individuation find a new synthesis in the construction of cultural values. Never an ideologue but always a poet of vision, he shows us a way to rejoice and strengthen ourselves in our common humanity. Here together for the first time are Wright's previously published collections: The Homecoming Singer 1971, Soothsayers and Omens 1976, Explications/Interpretations 1984, Dimensions of History 1976, The Double Invention of Komo 1980, Elaine's Book 1988 and Boleros 1991 along with the new poems of Transformations 1997. By presenting Wright's work as a whole this collection reveals the powerful consistency of his theme a spiritual or intellectual quest for personal development as each book builds solidly upon the previous one Wright examines history from a multicultural perspective attempting to conquer a sense of exclusion from society and his own cultural identity and find solace and accord by linking American society to African traditions He believes that a poem must articulate the vital rhythms of the culture it depicts and is dedicated to a pursuit of poetic forms that embody the cadence of African American culture In The Albuquerque Graveyard he offers a poignant elegy to victims of slavery's Middle Passage and also reveals the purpose of his poetry to the Black limbo an unwritten history of our own tensions The dead lie here in a hierarchy of small defeats Defying characterization Wright has experimented with voices languages cultures and forms not normally associated with African American literature He is well schooled in the cultures of West Africa Europe and the Americas and true to his New Mexican birth he is a powerful synthesizer of human experience Transfigurations reveals Wright to be a man of profound knowledge and a poet of exalted verbal intensity

Voices of Resistance Judy Maloof, 2021-05-11 Latin American women were among those who led the suffrage movements of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and their opposition to military dictatorships has galvanized more recent political movements throughout the region But because of the continuous attempts to silence them activists have struggled to make their voices heard At the heart of Voices of Resistance are the testimonies of thirteen women who fought for human rights and social justice in their communities Some played significant roles in the Cuban Revolution of 1959 while others organized grassroots resistance to the seventeen year Pinochet dictatorship in Chile Though the women share many objectives they are a diverse group ranging in age from thirty to eighty and coming from varied ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds The Cuban and Chilean women Judy Maloof interviewed use the narrative form to reinvent themselves Maloof includes narratives from a poet a tobacco worker a political prisoner an artist and a social worker to demonstrate the different faces of their struggle In the process these women were able to begin to put together their fragmented lives Speaking out is both a means for personal liberation and a political act of protest against authoritarian regimes The bond that these women have is not simply that they have suffered they share a commitment to resisting violence and confronting inequities at great personal risk
