The Killing Cross:

The Back Side of the Cross Diane Leclerc, Brent Peterson, 2022-06-29 The cross has always been portrayed as the means of salvation and forgiveness for sinners but does it have anything to say to those who have been sinned against This book shows that the atonement of Christ has powerful potential to speak to those who have been wronged especially those who have been abused and abandoned in countless ways those who cower at the back side of the cross wondering if they are included As victims of various kinds of abuse are beginning to come out of the shadows in cultural conversation and in the context of the church The Back Side of the Cross is a timely book for several audiences It is thoroughly rigorous and will interest theologians and their students it also offers a very practical section for pastors and those who want to care for the wounded and it can even reach survivors themselves as it offers true hope in the urgency of such real pain The Non-Violent Cross James W. Douglass, 2006-04-01 One of the ten best religious books of 1968 a fascinating proposal of revolutionary action through non violence from the Judeo Christian faith and the experiments in truth of Gandhi New Book Review The Non Violent Cross was a crucial text to push me into becoming a pacifist It remains as relevant today as it was when first published in 1966 Douglass was in conversation not only with Catholic perspectives but also John Howard Yoder Indeed he was among the first to show us how the most orthodox Christian claims committed the church to the practice of non violence We are in Wipf Stock s debt for bringing the book back into print Stanley Hauerwas Duke University It will be Jim s reflections on nonviolence and just war theory for which he will be remembered best And it is here that his language stretches bends and breaks under the strain of the inexplicable For he is not just settling arguments He is trying to convey the meaning of the kingdom of Reality which will be the final victory of Truth in history If that kingdom is ever to come it will be people like Jim who blazed the way Walter Wink Not only is this book the most thoroughgoing treatment to date of non violence but in its analyses of the current scene it is also a tract for the times The Christian Century Jesus and the Cross David Emmanuel Singh, 2008 The paper in this volume are organized in three parts scriptural contextual and theological The central question being addressed is how do Christians living in contexts where Islam is a majority or minority religion experience express or think of the Cross This is therefore an exercise in listening As the contexts from where these engagements arise are varied the papers in drawing scriptural contextual and theological reflections offer a cross section of Christian thinking about Jesus and the Cross The Starry Cross , 1927 The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1952, volume 1 Witness Lee, Brother Witness Lee was in Taiwan at the beginning of 1952 In the middle of January he conducted a seven day conference in Taipei Taiwan We do not have a record of the messages given at this conference Beginning on February 3 he conducted a ten day special conference These crucial messages are included in the section entitled Serving according to Revelation in volume 2 of the 1950 1951 set On February 27 Brother Lee went to Manila Philippines and he returned to Taipei on June 17 During his time in Manila he conducted a conference on March 30 through April 4 on the

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2007-12-18 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1989, volume 1 Witness Lee, 2021-05-28 The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1989 volume 1 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee from January 1 through November 21 1989 In 1989 Brother Lee spoke fifty two messages that were published in the Life study of Numbers These Life study messages are not included in The Collected Works of Witness Lee Brother Lee remained in Irving Texas during the first part of January 1989 He returned to Anaheim California in the second week of January and remained there until the end of the third week At the end of the month he visited Hacienda Heights and San Diego California and returned to Anaheim in the beginning of February From the second week in February through the end of the month he visited San Francisco San Jose Sacramento Pleasant Hill Berkeley and San Gabriel California before returning to Anaheim At the end of the first week in March Brother Lee traveled to Taipei Taiwan and remained there until the end of the third week in March He then visited Quezon City Philippines and Taichung and Kaohsiung Taiwan before returning to Taipei at the beginning of April He remained in Taipei until the end of the third week in April and then visited Seoul South Korea and Tokyo Japan before returning to Anaheim in the middle of May At the end of
