NO POT, NO WINDOW Or ?How I Changed My Life from Sour Lemons to Sweet Lemonade? Mary Burton King,2010-05-24 No Pot No Window is a true story about my life starting in the year 1951 when I was born in Marshall Texas to poor uneducated parents This book is intended to be a motivator and inspiration to all the people struggling to survive financially as I did for the majority of my life The expression no pot no window means you are so poor that you don't have a pot to pee in or a window to throw it out I believe poverty lack of education a negative home environment alcohol and or drug abuse bad judgment a single parent home disease illness and sometimes just plain bad luck keeps the syndrome of no pot no window perpetuating generation after generation My abusive alcoholic father abandoned my two sisters and me when I was nine years old and my codependent mother was absent from my life for many years After my father left and my parents divorced my mother spent the rest of her life looking for another husband to support her She was married nine times and never did find her Prince Charming just another drunk she met at a bar and dragged home When I was ten years old my mother sent my two sisters and me to live with her parents for over three years and during this period she was completely absent from our lives My maternal grandparents who were survivors of the Great Depression of 1929 were very tight with their money and affection They really did not want to raise three young children but decided we would be a valuable asset as farmhands on their five acre farm My mother came back into my life when I was thirteen years old and the saga of stepfathers began At the age of sixteen I had a job a car and was self sufficient Unfortunately I was also a juvenile delinquent because I had little or no parental supervision For lack of any other options I joined the military in 1969 during the height of the Vietnam War and began the long journey of becoming an adult Due to my immaturity and poor judgment I was married and divorced three times before the age of thirty and became a single parent to my only child When I was thirty two years old I was diagnosed with Stage II breast cancer and spent the next five years struggling to stay alive physically and financially With the assistance of the military I was able to obtain my bachelor of arts degree from the University of Mississippi in 1982 and a masters of forensic science from George Washington University in 1986 After twenty one years of active duty service I subsequently retired as a lieutenant from the United States Navy in 1993 I refused to accept and was able to overcome the no pot no window plight because of my perseverance hard work and most importantly advanced education I changed my life from sour lemons to sweet lemonade

Untold Secrets Lost Innocence Family Betrayal Sex Sells Ripple effects of being molested followed me for years. There are only so many ways a little girl can train herself to accept the horrific abuse from the hands of her dad. I came up with a few unique ways. Being choked into submission definitely stands out as one. Burying myself in my head was the best coping mechanism I came up with during the years of abuse. Except it only got worse from there. As a teenager how do you process being raped? As a young woman how do you handle the fear of taking a bath wondering if someone is going to come running into the bathroom after you? Maybe I should just ignore the fact I had experienced so much sexual abuse. What's left to focus on in my life? Well, there's being in the center of multiple family secrets. Reoccurring nightmares reminding me I killed the one person I knew loved me unconditionally. Dropped out of high school and had absolutely no self-esteem. Caught in the midst of a child abuse investigation when I'm not the victim. Buried some family, lost some friends. Seal that off with a few miscarriages, a couple abortions, a car accident, a remorseful stalker, and a jealous revenge-seeking ex-lover. Welcome to my life. It just didn't seem like the pain and drama would ever end. Until I fell in love. This man was like no other man I've ever known. He loved me unconditionally. He told me every single day, even when I refused to listen. Falling in love with him saved my life. He loved me so much he gave his life for me. So what am I willing to do in return for him? Jesus, this is for you. The Power of a Woman's Words Sharon Jaynes, 2020-04-21

Your Words Echo in Hearts and Minds Long After They Are Spoken. Have you listened to yourself lately? Did you know that your words are shaping other people's lives? That they are the mirrors in which others see themselves? Every day you can speak life into their souls or suck the life right out of them. The choice is yours. In The Power of a Woman's Words, bestselling author Sharon Jaynes will show you how to exchange careless words that hurt for intentional words that help others succeed. Recognize words that tear down confidence and replace them with words that build others up. Overcome the negativity that pushes people away and become a well of positivity that draws others in. Tame your tongue by practicing practical principles that help you think before you speak. Stop being disappointed in your lack of control by taking hold of the power of the Holy Spirit. Words are one of the most powerful forces in the universe, and God has entrusted them to you. How will you use this gift? Your words can change the course of someone's day, even someone's life. Mass Moralizing Phil Hopkins, 2015-04-02

Mass Moralizing: Marketing and Moral Storytelling examines the narratives of today's brand marketing, which largely focuses on creating an emotional attachment to a brand rather than directly promoting a product's qualities or features. Phil Hopkins explores these narratives' influence on how we think about ourselves and our moral possibilities, our cultural ideas about morality, and our relations to each other. He closely studies the relationship between three interrelated dynamics: the power of narrative in the construction of identity and world, the truth-telling pretenses of mass marketing, and the growth of moralizing as the primary moral discourse practice in contemporary consumer culture.

Mass Moralizing scrutinizes the way marketing speaks to us in explicitly moralistic terms significantly influencing how we think about ourselves and our moral possibilities Start Small Live Big Betsy Pake, 2016-12-19 We all have our own big life within us but sometimes everyday life takes over Even if weve made changes in the past we tend to slip back into what we know How do you make changes in your relationships your career your health or even your finances when life is already moving so fast Start Small Live Big gives you the framework for identifying which changes will have the biggest impact how to make those changes happen and the key to staying on track long term Small everyday actions create either the life you want or the life you dont want Youre already taking action Now is time to make sure you are taking the right action Follow along with Start Small Live Big and create the new framework for your big life NLT, Personal Worship Bible, eBook Thomas Nelson, 2003-11-19 The new iWorship Personal Worship Bible New Living Translation TM includes 365 daily devotions that lead readers into profoundly creative worship experiences Special features include study notes special introductions to all the books of the Bible 100 words of worship quotes reading plans special Scripture locator tools and a two color interior The Life and Practice of the Wild and Modern Indian J. D., 2008-07 Once Upon a Time There Was a Little Girl shares the moving stories of seven women who as young girls experienced the early loss of their mothers through death or physical or emotional abandonment The women explore their personal traumas through their responses to seven fairy tales in which there was no nurturing maternal presence Dr Marcella Shields is a psychologist with over thirty years of experience who reveals the inspiring journeys of these women who eventually triumph over suffering and learn to rely on the bond they have formed with each other to help reclaim their passion for life By exploring seven timeless fairy tales in which the heroine finds her way through the grief of abandonment the women offer a deeper understanding of the significance of the mother daughter bond and the devastating consequences for the daughter if this bond is ruptured early The poignant life stories and dreams courageously offered by these women show how fairy tales allowed them to understand and refashion themselves and provide a source of encouragement and hope for other women who have experienced early maternal loss Fathers raising daughters without a consistent maternal presence will also find the reflections valuable The Open Road of Life Loretta D.
