Brasília, Plan and Reality David G. Epstein,1973-01-01 A masterful account of Brasilia the city of the future where Brazil s continental destiny was to be fulfilled where government would be efficient and functional without the interference of radical students and labor leaders The building of the city was a gigantic public works program reflecting the various ties that existed between the planners on one hand and the contractors and suppliers on the other Epstein gives a detailed account of the pilot plan and the rise of satellite towns between 1957 and 1967 The planners dreamed of a city that would transcend the frustrations of urban life in the underdeveloped world but they failed to provide a sector where the actual builders of the dream city would live Shacktowns soon developed and have expanded to accommodate migrants often displaced landless cultivators who continue to be attracted to the city The conclusion Epstein comes to is that urban squatting will remain a prominent feature of Brasilia a part of a system deeply rooted in local national and global structure and ideology Until there are revolutionary changes in society squatting and shantytowns will be a fact of life in the underdeveloped world My Odyssey Joseph Kennedy,2011-08-10 My Odyssey Stories Poems and Verse began simply with a high school classroom assignment to write a short story Author Joseph Kennedy had no idea what to write he was prepared to fail instantly Ultimately however he succeededso much so that his short story was published in his high schools collection of writings for that year Thus began his interest in writing as a way to chronicle his thoughts and ideas This collection is organized chronologically following the growth of his creative voice as it develops through his odyssey His growth change and adaptation are both obvious and subtlefrom the sad Elegy to Mama Cass to the quiet elegance of a January thunderstorm in January Noon his voice resonates with strength and vibrancy Elegy to Mama Cass This morning I am mourning the death of Cass Elliot Who died choking on a ham sandwich An Epicurean delight she excelled in the art of eating Now by her own hand the maid goodly stuffed Lies still with a smile beamin As the cortege intones strains of California Dreamin John Michelle Denny all who earned a penny With her on Creeque Alley now wish her bon voyage And happiness to deaths rally NLT
