The Right to Exploit G. van Donselaar, 2009-07 This book explores how traditional theories of economic justice both from the libertarian right and the egalitarian left have failed to appreciate the objection against exploitative behavior that would be possible through the exercise of property rights This failure also underlies the recent plea for a so called unconditional basic income Crazy Enough to Jump Antoinette Randall, Accomplished individuals are glorified and often envied for reaching pinnacles and living lives that the vast majority can only imagine however that life comes at an expensive price Making excuses living in fear and wasting time holds a countless amount of people hostage to their own aspirations At maximum measure those three will suffocate the largest vision and diminish the sweetest dream Consistency is one major factor that separates the settled from the achieved If it were second nature thousands wouldn t exist in procrastination while eating a bag of popcorn and watching television This is one reason why the rich famous and accomplished are viewed as wonders as if they were magically thrown into their dwelling Jumping away from life as usual is a cost that many are

The tale of the immigrant in America is an old one The names and faces change but the struggles of those who come seeking a new and better life are the same In this story we have a hard working tax paying friendly young man from the Philippines He found some trouble through faults of his own with a young woman as young men are prone to do But then the American Justice system stepped in and through incompetence stupidity and self righteous actions cost him his livelihood freedom and cost America a hard working tax paying good member of society I hope in small part to embarrass the people in the Justice system to self reflection and modification of the rules that hide bad behavior and move to action those that have in the past tolerated it among their peers If that does not happen I hope this will be one of many calls to reform the system by the people of the United States to throw out those in office and positions of power who have for too long run a system of injustice pretending to be one of justice And if some of those in power can be made to feel just a little shame for their actions and inactions that will make me smile Dedicated to those who see injustice and act Murder of a Herkimer County
