Theology and Survival Movies Ioan Buteanu,2023-03-03 This book provides an innovative analysis of the survival movie genre from an Orthodox Christian anthropological perspective Grounded in the Orthodox tradition the approach builds from the first chapter of Genesis where man is described as made in the image and after the likeness of God It offers a nuanced theological exploration of the concept of the survival movie and examines a number of significant cinematic creations illustrating how issues of survival intersect romantic Western science fiction and war films The author reflects on how survival movies offer a path for the study of human nature given they depict people in crisis situations where they may reveal their true characters As well as discussing the role of a limit situation as a narrative element the book highlights the spiritual aspect of survival and points to the common hope in survival movies for something more than biological survival It is valuable reading for scholars working in the field of religion and film China and the West Hyobom Pak,1974 Mystic

Modernity Ashim Dutta, 2021-12-05 This is a transnational and bilingual investigation of the cross fertilisation of mystical religiosity and modern poetical imagination in the works of the Bengali poet Rabindranath Tagore and the Irish poet W B Yeats The book demonstrates how their commitments to transnational mysticism deeply form and inform the modernist literary projects of these poets as well as their understanding of cultural modernity Although its primary interest lies in their poetry and poetics the monograph also includes some of their relevant prose works This study begins with a close look at and around the phase of 1912 1913 when Yeats and Tagore met over the collection of the latter's English translations of his spiritual verses Gitanjali and took mutual interests in each other's works and cultural significances The monograph then expands on both sides of that phase selectively covering the whole career of the poets in its exploration of their parallel mystic modern cultural poetical projects

Pūrṇadāsa Bāula, Selina Thielemann, 2003 The Survivors of Israel Mark Adam Elliott, 2000 This study challenges the conventional view of scholars like E P Sanders that Late Second Temple Judaism was theologically nationalistic offering in its place a theory which argues that the intertestamental writings do not anticipate the salvation of all Jews but only of a faithful remnant within Israel Working carefully with the major books of the pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls Mark Adam Elliott shows that the authors of such works anticipated an imminent and scathing judgment of Israel that would exclude many or even most Israelites from the saved community This provocative finding not only confronts accepted perspectives on Late Second Temple Judaism but also suggests important implications for our reading of Paul and the New Testament
