Seven Sacraments for Everyone Dale F. Coye, 2014-03 Millions of Christians are abandoning their churches to become spiritual seekers but now find themselves adrift Without the church what do we believe in Where do we look for the Sacred in our lives The seed of an answer can be found in the Roman Catholic sacraments but with a shift in focus from rites and rituals to human experience It s not baptism it s the birth of a child that is holy It s not the wedding ceremony it s the sublime oneness we feel in the arms of our best beloved that lifts us into the realm of the Divine Seven Sacraments for Everyone maps the roads that lead to these out of this world experiences and into the heartland of the Sacred By acknowledging these moments of Mystery and teaching our children to respect them we will find the clues to a universal moral code on which to build a healthier more meaningful world

Invitation to Psychology John P. Houston, Helen Bee, David C. Rimm, 2013-10-22 Invitation to Psychology provides an introduction to fundamental concepts in psychology It seeks to address the need of both teachers and students by offering two different kinds of chapters The first variety covers the basic data and research within each of the traditional areas of psychology In these basic chapters the authors provide up to date and complete coverage of important developments in each area The second type of chapter is innovative These exploring chapters examine some of the practical applications and implications of the findings discussed in the basic chapters These describe how basic psychological data are being used in the outside world and discuss ongoing often controversial explorations into some frontier areas of psychology In other words information about explorations and applications that is often scattered through the pages of other texts is brought together into systematic chapters in this text The dual chapter approach helps resolve the dilemma of differing expectations of teachers and students Key topics covered include the definition of psychology the psychological basis of behavior sensation and perception states of awareness learning memory and cognition motivation and emotion abnormal psychology and social behavior
