Chmelka, 2002-11-19 Matej's Journey to America is a creative nonfiction chronicle exploring the forces that drove our immigrant ancestors to new lands After Adam and Eve's eviction from Eden man slowly scattered with a great dispersion occurring about 2700 BC as the Lord confounded the tongues of presumptuous Babylonians building a tower to heaven Among the afflicted was an Aryan slave named Chmelka who was growing hops chmel in the new Slavic language to flavor beer for his Semitic masters As the Slavs fled northward toward unknown Czech lands other tribes migrated in all directions According to The Book of Mormon the righteous Jared took a Semitic clan from Babel across the mountains deserts and oceans to a New World later named America Another Semitic clan that passed through Babylon 850 years later included a young Abraham destined to be the patriarch of Judaism Christianity and Islam He introduced the concept of a single God revered by all his religious descendants but despite their many commonalities each of these three great religions seem convinced it has the only correct formula for salvation justifying incredible atrocities with God always on its side The descendants of the first Chmelka struggled as great civilizations developed and fell through the turmoil and bloodshed of the

Dark Ages Marco Polo awakened Europe in the late 13th century to the riches of the Far East giving rise to explorers like Christopher Columbus who stumbled onto the North American Continent in 1492 The Protestant Reformation began to divide the Holy Roman Empire at the time adding to the bloodshed as Austria Prussia and France fought for domination in Europe Meanwhile Spain England and France were colonizing and competing for control in the New World that was becoming home to an increasing number of European emigrants looking for a better life The American Colonies fought for independence and then began to absorb all lands from the Atlantic to the Pacific Thomas Jefferson purchased the immense Louisiana Territory from Napoleon in 1803 after which mountain men opened the West to homesteaders miners and ranchers My great great grandfather Matej was born as the Rocky Mountain fur trade boomed in 1825 and grew up on a 13 acre farm in Moravia where the Chmelkas had been serfs since Charlemagne was crowned the first Holy Roman Emperor a millennium earlier Matej became a Dragoon in the Austrian Imperial Army and helped put down a revolution in Prague in 1848 the year gold was discovered in California but war spread and life worsened for European peasants Gold homesteads and wild Texas longhorns free for the taking lured thousands of oppressed Europeans to America on steamships and railroads now making long distance travel feasible After Prussia defeated the Austrian Empire including Bohemia and Moravia and then France Matej s family escaped its misery and immigrated to Nebraska in 1871 They found a difficult life with grasshoppers drought hail and fires destroying crops spurring Matej s fourteen year old son to join a Texas cattle drive and then dodge Indians and gunfighters for fourteen years in the Wild West New technologies in farm equipment transportation and communications made America the envy of the world in 1902 when Matej died and was buried near the prairie church he helped build Matej s Journey to America honors him and his fellow immigrants ordinary men and women generally lost in history for the legacies and opportunities they gave us in our great land of freedom

Securitising Monstrous Bottoms in the Age of Posthuman Carnivalesque? Artwell Nhemachena, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2020-07-03 Placing security studies in the context of contemporary discourses about the colonial comeback and posthumanism this book postulates the notion of staticide which avers that the effacement of African state sovereignty is crucial for the security of the oncoming empire Understood in the light of posthumanism antihumanism animism postanthropocentrism and transhumanism African human security has evidently been put on a recession course together with African state security Much as African states are demonised as so failed defective corrupt weak and rogue to require recolonisation transhumanism also assumes that human bodies are so corrupt imperfect defective failed rogue and weak to require not only enhancements or augmentation but also to beckon recolonisation Also deemed to be ecologies human bodies are set to be liberalised and democratised in the interest of nonhuman viruses nanobots microchips bacteria fungi and other pathogens living within the bodies The book critically examines the security implications of theorising human bodies as ecologies for nonhuman entities Reading staticide together with transhumanism this book foresees transhumanist new eugenics that are accompanying the new empire in a supposedly Anthropocene world that serves to justify the sacrifice and disposability of some surplus humans living in the recesses and nether regions of the empire. Paying attention to the colonial comeback, the book urges African scholars not to mistake imperial transformation for decolonisation. The book is invaluable for scholars and activists in African studies, anthropology, decoloniality, sociology, politics, development studies, security studies, sociology and anthropology of science and technology studies, and environmental studies.

The Myths That Made America Heike Paul, 2014-08-15. This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today. These myths include the myth of discovery, the Pocahontas myth, the myth of the Promised Land, the myth of the Founding Fathers, the melting pot myth, the myth of the West, and the myth of the self-made man. The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture, literature, memorial culture, school books, and every day life. Including visual material as well as study questions, this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building.

The Methodist Unification Morris L. Davis, 2008-01-01. A ground-breaking analysis of the intertwined political, racial, and religious dynamics in the early twentieth-century Methodist Church. Wendy J. Deichmann, Edwards, United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio. In 1939, America's three major Methodist Churches sent delegates to Kansas City, Missouri, for what they called the Uniting Conference. They formed the largest and arguably the most powerful Protestant church in the country. Yet this newly unified denomination was segregated to its core. In The Methodist Unification, Morris L. Davis examines this unification process and how it came to institutionalize racism and segregation in unprecedented ways. Davis shows that Methodists in the early twentieth century, including high-profile African American clergy, were very much against integration. Many feared that mixing the races would lead to interracial marriages and threaten the social order of American society. The Methodist Unification illuminates the religious culture of Methodism, Methodists' self-identification as the primary carriers of American Christian Civilization, and their influence on the crystallization of whiteness during the Jim Crow Era as a legal category and cultural symbol.

The USA, Israel, Egypt and the APOCALYPSE Danny Bernardo Bajit, 2025-08-08. The beginning and destiny of nations were all written in the Bible. Consider Egypt, often mentioned in the prophecies: A cruel Pharaoh will again rule not only over Israel but also the entire world. But who is the real Egypt in our generation? How about the House of Judah? Where is the House of Israel with the ten lost tribes? Why the prophecies about the ancient empires of Assyria and Babylon? Futurizing the Jews Tsvi (Howard) Bisk, Moshe Dror, 2003-11-30 Bisk and Dror assert that the 21st Century can be the Jewish Century that no other people is better prepared to face its challenges However to do so a stress on the Jewish Future must replace a preoccupation with the Jewish Past They offer a neo Zionist ideological analysis of modern Jewish life as an alternative to both classical Zionism and post Zionism They conceptualize a Jewish Grand Strategy by clearly defining and delineating between ideology policy grand strategy strategy and tactics with compelling proposals for what such a revised Grand Strategy might entail They suggest a concept of reinvigorated Israel Diaspora relations based on this new Grand Strategy and the potential of the Information Technology Revolution They also offer a conception of Jewish spirituality that could be as appealing to secular as to religious Jews They reject the concept of a Nation that Dwells Alone Throughout the ages Jews have affected and been affected by the world more than any other People they assert They also reject the view that suffering is the dominant feature of Jewish history as this lachrymose perception cannot inspire needed Jewish ambitions in the young They stress the needs of the Jewish person and insist that there can be no real significance to the continued existence of the Jewish People unless the real life concrete needs of the individual are addressed As former Israeli Ambassador to the United Nations and former Cabinet Minister Gad Yaacobi asserts in his foreword The book is original iconoclastic and in some ways revolutionary it challenges inherited assumptions and calls for positive action I believe we have before us a book that must become a reference point for Jewish policy makers as quickly as possible
