the Age of Suicide John F. Desmond, 2019-01-09 Fyodor Dostoevsky Walker Percy and the Age of Suicide is a study of the phenomenon of suicide in modern and post modern society as represented in the major fictional works of Fyodor Dostoevsky and Walker Percy In his study suicide is understood in both a literal and spiritual sense as referring to both the actual suicides in their works and to the broader social malaise of spiritual suicide or despair In the 19th century Dostoevsky called suicide the terrible question of our age For his part Percy understood 20th century Western culture as suicidal in both its social political and military behavior and in the deeper sense that its citizenry had suffered an ontological loss of self or deformation of being Likewise Thomas Merton called the 20th century an age of suicide

The House of the Dead is a semi autobiographical novel which portrays the life of convicts in a Siberian prison camp The novel has also been published under the titles Memoirs from the House of The Dead and Notes from the Dead House or Notes from a Dead House The book is a loosely knit collection of facts events and philosophical discussion organized by theme rather than as a continuous story Dostoyevsky himself spent four years in exile in such a camp following his conviction for involvement in the Petrashevsky Circle This experience allowed him to describe with great authenticity the conditions of prison life and the characters of the convicts

Notes from Underground presents itself as an excerpt from the rambling memoirs of a bitter isolated unnamed narrator generally referred to by critics as the Underground Man who is a retired civil servant living in St Petersburg The first part of the story is told in monologue form or the underground man s diary and attacks emerging Western philosophy especially Nikolay Chernyshevsky s What Is to Be Done The second part of the book is called Apropos of the Wet Snow and describes certain events that it seems are destroying and sometimes renewing the underground man who acts as a first person unreliable narrator It is considered by many to be the first existentialist novel The Independent William Livingston,1912 The Little Tragedies Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin,2000-01-01
