Owen-Crocker,2005 Harold II is chiefly remembered today perhaps unfairly for the brevity of his reign and his death at the Battle of Hastings The papers collected here seek to shed new light on the man and his milieu before and after that climax They explore the long career and the dynastic network behind Harold Godwinsson's accession on the death of King Edward the Confessor in January 1066 looking in particular at the important questions as to whether Harold's kingship was opportunist or long planned a usurpation or a legitimate succession in terms of his Anglo Scandinavian kinships They also examine the posthumous legends that Harold survived Hastings and lived on as a religious recluse The essays in the second part of the volume focus on the Bayeux Tapestry bringing out the small details which would have resonated significantly for contemporary audiences both Norman and English to suggest how they judged Harold and the other players in the succession drama of 1066 Other aspects of the Tapestry are also covered the possible patron and locations the Tapestry was produced for where and how it was designed and the various sources artistic and real employed by the artist GALE OWEN CROCKER is Professor of Anglo Saxon Culture at the University of Manchester The Boy in the Burning House Tim Wynne-Jones,2000 Conscious Experience Thomas Metzinger,1995 The contributions to this book are original articles representing a cross section of current philosophical work on consciousness and thereby allowing students and readers from other disciplines to acquaint themselves with the very latest debate so that they can then pursue their own research interests more effectively The volume includes a bibliography on consciousness in philosophy cognitive science and brain research covering the last 25 years and consisting of over 1000 entries in 18 thematic sections compiled by David Chalmers and Thomas Metzinger The Burning House Carlo McCormick,David Ellis,Marsea Golberg,Swoon (Graffiti artist),Stijn Huijts,FAILE (Artist collective),Museum het Domein (Sittard, Netherlands),New Image Art Gallery,2007 The Collectors Thomas MacKay,2002 Contemporary American Women Writers Catherine Rainwater,William J. Scheick,2014-10-17 Ann Beattie Annie Dillard Maxine Hong Kingston Toni Morrison Cynthia Ozick Grace Paley Marge Piercy Anne Redmon Anne Tyler and Alice Walker all seem to be especially concerned with narrative management The ten essays in this book raise new and intriguing questions about the ways these leading women writers appropriate and transform generic norms and ultimately revise literary tradition to make it more inclusive of female experience vision and expression The contributors to this volume discover diverse narrative strategies Beattie Dillard Paley and Redmon in divergent ways rely heavily upon narrative gaps surfaces and silences often suggesting depths which are lamentably absent from modern experience or which mysteriously elude language For Kingston and Walker verbal assertiveness is the focus of narratives depicting the gradual empowerment of female protagonists who learn to speak themselves into existence Ozick and Tyler disrupt conventional reader expectations of the anti novel and the family novel respectively Finally Morrison s and Piercy s works reveal how traditional narrative forms such as the Bildungsroman and the soap opera are adaptable to feminist purposes In examining the writings of these ten important women authors this book illuminates a significant moment in literary history when women s voices are profoundly reshaping American literary tradition The Chronicles of Kryptic
