To Drink from the Silver Cup Anna Redsand,2020-08-08 Anna Redsand was sixteen when she heard her mother say of two women who d been discovered to be lovers They re living in sin They should see a doctor She knew in that moment that she would have to leave the security and intimacy of family church and home the only world she had ever known As that world faded so too did everything that had been religious or spiritual inside her The journey was to find what she d lost or replace it Was there a faith community that could accept Anna as a lesbian a doubter and someone committed to social justice To Drink From the Silver Cup is the story of Anna Redsand s quest It took her from a devout missionary life in the Navajo Nation into the shame and exile of being unwanted in the homeland and then beyond through the uncharted territory of different religious spiritual and political directions Always striving for authenticity continuing to long for home forty years after taking leave Anna embarked on a deliberate experiment to see if return was possible or whether too much had changed in her and too little in the church In the past most memoirs about conflicts between fundamentalist Christianity and sexuality have been written by gay men Few if any have come to the same resolution that To Drink From the Silver Cup does This is a unique and memorable story with resonance for both seekers and those who have never challenged their held beliefs The Ten Commandments Rob Suggs,2002-07-11 God's rules do more than restrict they give freedom They are words of prevention and protection They define identity ours and God's In this twelve session LifeGuide Bible Study looks at one of God's commandments and a Bible passage that will help you better understand how to apply God's law As you study these laws you will encounter God himself "The" English Catalogue of Books ,1898 Though the Mountains Tremble Gene L. Davenport,2009-02-01 Though the Mountains Tremble is a collection of random commentaries from a biblical perspective on issues and events in the contemporary world Though most of the essays speak to specific events they carry general observations that can provide insight into issues and events of any time At the heart of these observations are a few basic assumptions that God still works in history through nations and institutions that God's purposes for the Creation are centered in Jesus Christ that humankind was created to be God's representatives in caring for the world and all living things that the crucial struggles in history are waged against the Powers and Principalities and that both nations and individuals are held accountable to God for their actions These reflections are rooted in the assumption that although it is not an answer book or a spiritual almanac the Bible bears testimony to the character of God and sets forth an ethos that can if embraced engender basic discernment in the midst of the world's chaos Religion, Children's Literature, and Modernity in Western Europe, 1750-2000 Jan de Maeyer,2005 In this book some 25 scholars focus on the relationship between religion children's literature and modernity in Western Europe since the Enlightenment c 1750 They examine various aspects of the phenomenon of children's literature such as types of texts age of readers position of authors design and illustration The role of religion in giving meaning both in a substantive sense as well as through the institutionalised churches is studied from an interdenominational point of view Judaism Roman Catholicism Protestantism and Anglicanism Finally the contribution of pedagogy and child psychology in the interaction between modernity religion and children's literature is also discussed Various articles give a broad overview of the tensions between aesthetics and ethics and the demand for cultural autonomy in the development of children's literature Children's bibles and missionary stories played an important part in the growing diversification of children's literature as did the publication of illustrated reviews for children Remarkable differences are highlighted in the involvement of religious societies and institutions episcopally approved publishing houses and supervisory bodies in the publication distribution and supervision of children's literature This volume adopts a comparative approach in exploring the underlying religious ideological and cultural dimensions of children's literature in modern society The Ten Commandments of Propaganda Brian Anse Patrick,2013 Employing humor and otherwise charming prose Patrick weaves a compelling story of persuasive elements that define and drive propaganda In addition he uses contemporary and historical examples to clearly and precisely explain complex ideas This text is a keeper NProf Bruce L Plopper School of Mass Communication University of Arkansas at Little Rock Cue ,1966 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1957 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc
