The Borgia Apocalypse The Screenplay English Edition:

The Borgia Apocalypse Neil Jordan, 2013 From Academy Award winning screenwriter Neil Jordan comes THE BORGIA APOCALYPSE the epic conclusion to Showtime's acclaimed TV series THE BORGHIAS which was cancelled after its third season Fans left wanting more can now read the screenplay for the two hour finale and see how Jordan planned to bring the family to a suitably apocalyptic end The Bibliographer Paul Leicester Ford, 1902 The Rewritten Bible in Late Antiquity Gavin McDowell, 2025-09-22 Pirke de Rabbi Eliezer PRE is most famous for introducing into rabbinic tradition several legends about biblical figures not found in the classical rabbinic corpus of Talmud and Midrash Modern scholarship considers the non rabbinic legends in PRE an example of the survival of Second Temple literature within Jewish tradition The present study however will attempt to explain the non rabbinic material found in PRE as the result of the author's adoption and adaptation of elements from the surrounding Christian and Muslim cultures rather than through the direct transmission of Second Temple works among Jews This hypothesis will be tested through the examination of two works close to PRE in form and content Jubilees second century BCE and the Cave of Treasures sixth century CE All three are examples of the Rewritten Bible which recount the history of ancient Israel independently of the biblical text The study concludes that religion rather than religion shaped the author's presentation of the history of the ancient prophets and patriarchs Subterranean Cities David L. Pike, 2018-07-05 The underground has been a dominant image of modern life since the late eighteenth century A site of crisis fascination and hidden truth the underground is a space at once more immediate and more threatening than the ordinary world above In Subterranean Cities David L Pike explores the representation of underground space in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a period during which technology and heavy industry transformed urban life The metropolis had long been considered a moral underworld of iniquity and dissolution As the complex drainage systems underground railways utility tunnels and storage vaults of the modern cityscape superseded the countryside of caverns and mines as the principal location of actual subterranean spaces ancient and modern converged in a mythic space that was nevertheless rooted in the everyday life of the contemporary city Writers and artists from Felix Nadar and Charles Baudelaire to Charles Dickens and Alice Meynell Gustave Doré and Victor Hugo George Gissing and Emile Zola and Jules Verne and H G Wells integrated images of the urban underworld into their portrayals of the anatomy of modern society Illustrated with photographs movie stills prints engravings paintings cartoons maps and drawings of actual and imagined urban spaces Subterranean Cities documents the emergence of a novel space in the subterranean obsessions and anxieties within nineteenth century urban culture Chapters on the subways sewers and cemeteries of Paris and London provide a detailed analysis of these competing centers of urban modernity A concluding chapter considers the enduring influence of these spaces on urban culture at the turn of the twenty first century The George Raft File: the Unauthorized Biography James Robert Parish, Steven Whitney, 1973 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, Katharine Sergeant
