The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1922 The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2003-02-27 The most magnificent novel ever written Sigmund Freud The murder of brutal landowner Fyodor Karamazov changes the lives of his sons irrevocably Mitya the sensualist whose bitter rivalry with his father immediately places him under suspicion for parricide Ivan the intellectual driven to breakdown the spiritual Alyosha who tries to heal the family s rifts and the shadowy figure of their bastard half brother Smerdyakov Dostoyevsky s dark masterwork evokes a world where the lines between innocence and corruption good and evil blur and everyone s faith in humanity is tested Translated with an Introduction and notes by DAVID McDUFF The Novels of Fyodor Dostoevsky: The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1926

Thomas Mann and Shakespeare Tobias Döring,Ewan Fernie,2017-08-24 The first ever comparative reading of Shakespeare and Thomas Mann in view of key questions in modern culture The Demonic Ewan Fernie,2013-02-11 Are we either good or bad and do we really know the difference Why do we want what we cannot have and even to be what we re not Can we desire others without wanting to possess them Can we open to others and not risk possession ourselves And where in these cases do we draw the line Ewan Fernie argues that the demonic tradition in literature offers a key to our most agonised and intimate experiences The Demonic ranges across the breadth of Western culture engaging with writers as central and various as Luther Shakespeare Hegel Dostoevsky Melville and Mann A powerful foreword by Jonathan Dollimore brings out its implications as an intellectual and stylistic breakthrough into new ways of writing criticism Fernie unfolds an intense and personal vision not just of Western modernity but of identity morality and sex As much as it s concerned with the great works this is a book about life Demystifying Evil Ingrid Faro,2023-12-05 How can we understand God s work in a world permeated with evil Narrating her own wrestling with evil as well as engaging in biblical and philosophical analysis biblical scholar Ingrid Faro explores the many dimensions to evil in a way that is soberly honest biblically engaged and theologically nuanced The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell,2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery Caring for the Harvest Force in the New Millennium Tom A. Steffen,F. Douglas P.

Pennoyer,2001-09-15 This volume continues the EMS Series with selected presentations from the November 2000 annual meeting Caring for the Harvest Force in the New Millennium presents the theological foundations challenges and contexts for caring for those in full time Christian service Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction's capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it

The Soul of a Nation Bernard J. Coughlin, 2012-09-27 Since World War II there have been many changes in our nation due to shifts in our philosophy of man and moral law The Soul of a Nation is a series of essays on these critical transformations in our society This book will be of interest to citizens and scholars who question our society's political drift in recent years The Soul of a Nation was written not only for scholars and students but for their parents and elders as well The Crisis of Meaning and the Life-World Lubica Učník, 2016-12-15 In The Crisis of Meaning and the Life-World Učník examines the existential conflict that formed the focus of Edmund Husserl's final work which she argues is very much with us today how to reconcile scientific rationality with the meaning of human existence To investigate this conundrum she places Husserl in dialogue with three of his most important successors Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt and Jan Patočka For Husserl 1930s Europe was characterized by a growing irrationalism that threatened to undermine its legacy of rational inquiry Technological advancement in the sciences Husserl argued had led science to forget its own foundations in the primary life world the world of lived experience Renewing Husserl's concerns in today's context Učník first provides an original and compelling reading of his oeuvre through the lens of the formalization of the sciences then traces the unfolding of this problem through the work of Heidegger Arendt and Patočka Although many scholars have written on Arendt none until now has connected her philosophical thought with that of Czech phenomenologist Jan Patočka Učník provides invaluable access to the work of the latter who remains understudied in the English language She shows that together these four thinkers offer new challenges to the way we approach key issues confronting us today providing us with ways to reconsider truth freedom and human responsibility in the face of the postmodern critique of metanarratives and a growing philosophical interest in

Dialectics and the Sublime in Underhill's Mysticism Peter Chong-Beng Gan,2015-04-29 This book represents a study of Evelyn Underhill s premier work on mysticism using Hegel s dialectics and Kant s theory of the sublime as interpretive tools It especially focuses on two prominent features of Underhill s text the description of the mystical life as one permeated by an intense love between the mystic and infinite reality and the detailed delineation of stages of mystical development Given these two features the text lends itself to a construction of a valuable discourse predicated on dialecticism sublimity and mysticism The book also articulates a number of insights into the content and nature of the writings of Christian mystics
