"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

The Tao of Parenting Greta K. Nagel, 1998-11-01 Applying the ancient yet timeless 81 principles of Taoism to parenting The Tao Of Parenting features instructive anecdotes from four families to demonstrate how Taoist teachings help parents raise good healthy children The stories are just as diverse as the families who tell them a blended family featuring children from separate marriages a couple with different cultural and ethical backgrounds a single parent of twin boys and a couple with different parenting techniques learning to compromise Some of the Taoist principles used by these families include Do Not Think of Self Shows the rewards parents receive by making their children their number one priority The material is fleeting the spiritual is everlasting Demonstrates the rewards of caring for those in need Do Not Be Authoritarian Shows how to foster self reliance and responsibility in children while supporting their efforts rather than controlling their every move Follow the middle road it is the heart of knowing Offers the benefits of parents being neither too permissive or too strict but rather adjusting the rules for each child and each circumstance There are many more valuable lessons in this special book which can be used by parents of all faiths to help guide their lives and those of their children

Woke Is Not Enough T. Elijah Hawkes, 2022-06-15 These are challenging times for leaders who believe schools must teach history honestly be laboratories of democracy and honor differences while finding common cause This book grounded in two decades of work in diverse school settings provides guidance to help us remain steadfast in the work Racial justice Beyond proclamations how can school leaders reallocate resources to support substantive anti racist school reforms Democratic practice How can school leaders who have significant authority in a hierarchical system wield their power in support of democracy Restorative justice With time in short supply how can schools truly embrace restorative practice which calls for slowing down to repair and prevent harm Student activism How can school leaders uphold rules while also supporting students who disrupt in the name of justice Counter extremism White supremacist threats are a danger to our communities How can school leaders carefully confront the extremism of these troubled times Compelling stories drawn from contemporary school contexts help illuminate each of these questions in fine detail Each chapter concludes with a list of concrete actions every school leader can take in pursuit of answers Administrators teacher leaders and those who support school reform with justice in mind will find both practical guidance and inspiration
